Executive Committee of the Brotherhood of Operatives
In Session Here.

MATTERS STILL IN STATU QUO

Secretary Duffy Replies to the Manufacturers—Has Tried to Keep Matters Quiet to Protect Business Interests—A Complete Review.

The executive board of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters convened at Brotherhood headquarters at 10:30 this morning.

Those present were President
Hughes, Secretary Duffy and Elmer Stevenson, of this city, and J. J. Jackson, second vice president, Wheeling;
John Gould, East Palestine; Harry Broughan, Trenton. F. H. Hutchins, of Trenton, is the only member absent, and he is detained at home by illness.

There is nothing new in the situation at present, as the board has not yet had time to go over the ground.
However, they are expected to have formed some definite plan of action by this evening.

Although the interested parties are saying nothing, there is a feeling of confidence today that an adjustment will be reached and a strike averted.

Secretary T. J. Duffy, of the Brotherhood of Operative Potters, today gave the following authorized statement:

"In last Saturday's issue of your paper, W. E. Wells, secretary of the Western Manufacturing Potters' association, gives 'an authorized statement' of their (the manufacturers'), position, in the belief that the public should be correctly informed. Being desirous of helping Mr. Wells to 'correctly inform the public,' of the true state of affairs, we wish to take exception to the statement given by him.

"First, we wish to say that we are opposed to the policy of rushing into public print with our business, or creating public clamor over every little grievance that may arise. In the present matter we endeavored to keep matters as quiet as possible, so as not to cause any unnecessary alarm in business circles; but the manufacturers have kindly furnished the press with all matter they desired, pertaining to the difficulty. Our only purpose in keeping matters quiet is consideration
for the business interests of the city;
but if we undertake an appeal to public sentiment it will, perhaps, be turned in a different direction than that which the manufacturers would have it go.

"But we do not wish to take advantage of public sentiment; all we wish is to have just grievances settled by fair methods, not according to prejudice or sympathy. We made no appeals for sympathy. Neither do we,
when a petty grievance arises, always put out the threat: 'If it's not settled in three days, we will shut down every pottery in the city.'

"Now Mr. Wells does not touch upon the questions in dispute. He only endeavors to show that we 'forfeited the right to treat with the National association' and that we 'erred in addressing grievances to the U. S. Potters' association.'

"According to Mr. Wells' letter of July 24, 1900, which was a reply to our communication of July 20, 1900, addressed to the U. S. Potters' association, and in which we presented the matters at issue, the Western association took it upon themselves to act upon our communication, and directed their members of the standing committee to deal with us on all propositions except proposition No. 1, which later was settled favorable to the manufacturers. At a later date, when we presented these matters to the standing committee, the manufacturers on that committee informed us that they could not take up such matters, as they were
of a 'general character' and should be presented to the U. S. Potters' association. So, acting upon the suggestion of the manufacturers we submitted the questions to the U. S. Potters' association at their meeting at Pittsburg in December, 1900, and they informed us that they would not give the matters

any consideration.

"Since that time we have communicated with Mr. J. N. Taylor, chairman of the U. S. Potters' association, but were unable to get the desired conference. Acting upon the suggestion in
Mr. Taylor's reply, we again called the attention of the standing committee to these matters, but the manufacturers of that committee stated that they had no authority to deal with us on the questions.

"It was not until last Friday, April 12, that we found out that any organization of the manufacturers would extend to us the courtesy of a conference. With us it has not been so much a question as to what 'body' we should deal with, as it was to find any
'body' to deal with us.

"Again Mr. Wells says 'claims and demands since filed with the arbitration committee have been innumerable
' * * * and all from the men; manufacturers never having filed a single demand.' Of course not. Why should the manufacturers file any demands, when everything pertaining thereto works to their advantage? For instance, if a firm gets out a new article and offers the man four cents per dozen for making said article, and the man should ask six cents, the firm will only pay him four cents pending settlement by the standing committee.
Is it to be expected then, that the
firm is going to file a demand? No.
The man who has the grievance must file the claim or suffer an injustice by not doing so.

"Fully one-half of the claims presented to the standing committee were brought there by operatives whose employers refused to deal with them at all, ordering their employees to take their grievance to the standing committee, and during the mean time the
man must work at the manufacturers' price. Why, one-half of the work of the standing committee could have been avoided, had the manufacturers in some potteries even consented to consider the claims of their employees.
But the men were always told that if they wanted any consideration for their claims they must go to the standing committee, and then, as if to show the fairness of the manufacturers, we are told that 'they never filed a claim.'

"Mr. Wells also informs us that their members of the committee have
'thrown up their hands in despair, and have just resigned as a body.' Well, they are not to be blamed for resigning, for some of the arguments put forth in the standing committee would disgust any man possessing any reason at all, and the most ridiculous of these arguments came from manufacturers.
It is safe to say that some of the manufacturers who served on the standing committee were not any more disgusted with the operatives than they were
with some of the manufacturers.

"But all of Mr. Wells' talk about the arbitration committee has no direct bearing on the present difficulty.
Still, if the manufacturers wish to go before the public with all that happened in the standing committee, nothing will be more pleasing to us, nor would anything be more beneficial to our cause. But we have no desire to enter into newspaper controversy, nor do we intend to do so, only as a matter of self-defense, as in the present instance.

"As to the present difficulty we will only say at this time, that we consider the claims of the men just, and that is why we insist upon having a conference with the manufacturers to mutually agree upon them, and give the manufacturers an opportunity to point out what they considered unjust among our claims, and then perhaps we could 'reason together.'

"But we considered our claims worthy of more recognition than to be told: 'We cannot give the matter any further consideration.'"

BADLY USED UP

William Urp Assaulted And Terribly Beaten on Walnut Street
Saturday Night.

William Urp, a ware grinder at the Knowles pottery, was assaulted on Walnut street Saturday night, and was so badly used up that he had to be assisted to the office of a physician.
No complaint was made at police
headquarters.

SIX MEN CAUGHT IN POLICE NET

Frank Beatty, Just Out of the Works, Gets In Trouble
and Is Fined.

TIM STRAIN WILL GO TO CANTON

He Fought With Beatty And Was Fined $50—Other Offenders Kept
the Police Department Fairly Busy Saturday Night And Sunday.

The police department was kept busy Saturday night and Sunday morning. When their work was finished up early Sunday morning the list showed that six victims had fallen into the hands of the police.

Frank Beatty has only recently arrived from the works, and on Saturday night, with a few congenial spirits, started to make up for lost time.
Beatty invariably gets quarrelsome when he gets a few drinks under his belt, and when he met Tim Strain on Franklin street he had no trouble in being accommodated with a fight. Officer Mahoney happened along and arrested both. When Strain faced the mayor Sunday morning he was presented with one of his honor's Wheeling stogies. Tim was at a loss to understand this, but evidently took it as an indication that he had made a hit with the authorities. Accordingly, when the charge was read he had no hesitation in pleading guilty to being disorderly and fighting. The mayor fined him $50 and costs. Officer Stafford took him to the workhouse this morning, where he will remain during the summer.

Beatty succeeded in raising the amount of his fine, $9.60 and he gained his liberty on Sunday morning.

Ed Graham was captured by Fireman Bettridge on Kossuth street Saturday night and taken to jail in the patrol. He was drunk and those in charge of the patrol were compelled to almost carry him to the wagon.

Patrolman Woods found Ernest
Cline back of the opera house Saturday night, where he had picked out a nice quiet place to take a nap. He was taken to jail in the patrol and given a bunk there where there was less chance of his being annoyed. He had $3.25 and when heard Sunday morning Mayor Davidson relieved him of $6.60 of the amount, and he still had sufficient to buy a few bowls, provided he was judicious about it.

Annie Caplis became tired of East Liverpool and concluded to go to Chicago Saturday evening. She went to the C. & P. station and made inquiry
of Assistant Ticket Agent Ryan concerning the fare and time of trains.
Miss Caplis was considerably the worse for liquor and returned later to ask a few more questions.

Not long afterward the station was closed and those in charge left the place. The woman made her appearance not long afterward and because she found no one at the station became angry and broke a large plate glass window. Officers Davidson and Aufferhelde arrested her and she spent the night in jail.

The friends of the woman raised the amount of her fine, $6.60, and she was released Sunday evening. She had enough money to return to her home in Chicago and she started Sunday night.

H. R. Grimes was using profanity at Jack Eckert's place on Market street
Saturday night and the proprietor made a charge against him. Grimes protested his innocence and after putting up security for his appearance,
the hearing was set for Monday.

It is thought Grimes changed his mind when he got sober and concluded to allow the matter to rest where it was.

William Spink was arrested by Officer Dawson today on Third street.
Spink was very drunk. He will be

SUED FOR $475.

ACTION BROUGHT AGAINST AN

for Fruit—Matters
Before Court.

Lisbon, April 15.—(Special.)—John Koehler, who conducts a wholesale produce commission business in Pittsburg, filed suit here today against J.
W. Phillips, of East Palestine. It is claimed that the defendant owes a bill of $475 for baskets of fruit.

The case of Catherine Carraher
against the East Liverpool Ice & Coal company, which was set for a hearing in court has been continued until Thursday morning, counsel being unable to attend tomorrow.

Bond in the sum of $300 was filed in common pleas court today, removing the case of D. E. Mather against W. H. Booth to the circuit court. The case was tried in common pleas during this term, when the petition was dismissed and the defendant given judgment for costs.

Sheriff Noragon will not take Jesse McGregor to Columbus until tomorrow morning.

SCALDED TO DEATH.

A LISBON CHILD UPSETS HOT

Some of the Burning Liquid Got Down Its Throat,
Killing It.

Lisbon, April 15.—(Special.)—A one-year-old child of Samuel Hoover, of this city, was frightfully burned about the head on Saturday afternoon by overturning a large bowl of hot soup.
Several hours later they succeeded in putting the child to sleep, and it never wakened.

A quantity of the hot liquid passed down its throat, burning it internally.

BOERS' EXPLOITS.

500 BRITISH REPORTED.

The News, As Yet Unconfirmed, Excites Much Apprehension
in London.

London, April 15.—(Special.)—
There is consternation and alarm in government circles, as well as among the British public, over a report from Pretoria today that the Boers have captured General French and 500 British.

The report is not confirmed by official advices, but it has caused no end of alarm nevertheless.

Shipped By Mrs. Smith to East Liverpool.

Pittsburg, April 15.—The vast quantity of stolen stuff which the police captured at the time of the arrests
of the burglar gang which murdered Kahney, the Mt. Washington grocer, and Detective P. E. Fitzpatrick, will be open today for the inspection of the public and the identification of property.

Mrs. May Smith, the boarding house keeper at 32 Fulton street, where the detective was killed, is said to have admitted that she shipped a trunkful
of clothes from her house to East Liverpool, O., for Mrs. Wright. The latter had some dress goods she wanted made up and Mrs. Smith said she advised her to send them to an Ohio dressmaker she knew for the purpose of getting the work done cheaper than she could here.

Sueptintendent O'Mara has sent to several cities in the hope of being able to trace goods sent away by the Wrights. He has received no responses.

The police authorities of this city have received no request to detain any shipment from Mrs. Smith. At both the express office and the C. & P. freight station it was denied that any goods shipped by her had been received.

HEAVY FINES PUT ON SALOONISTS

D. A. Devine and Wm. E. Morrow
Compelled to Fork Over Large Sums.

SCREEN ORDINANCE VIOLATED

It Was the Second Offense And the Full Penalty Was Imposed—It Is Thought All Saloonmen Will Observe the Law Hereafter.

A hearing was had Saturday afternoon in the case against D. A. Devine for violating the screen ordinance.

Devine was among the six saloonists against whom charges were made on Thursday night, and the balance of the cases were dismissed owing
to there having been a misunderstanding.
In the case of Devine it was different. He has a screen over the window at his place on Second street,
and according to the report of the officers making the complaint, it was almost impossible to obtain a view of the interior while the glass was in position.

A number of witnesses were examined, and at the conclusion of the testimony Mayor Davidson fined the saloon man $100 and costs, it being his second offense. The screen has been removed.

Officer Stafford arrested William Morrow Saturday night for violating the screen ordinance. He was notified to appear this morning for a hearing.

Morrow was charged with keeping
his screen doors closed after the hour specified in the ordinance. When the authorities appeared at city hall this morning they found another charge against Morrow awaiting action. The time for hearing was then changed to 3 o'clock this afternoon, at which time he was fined $50 and costs on the first charge and $100 and costs on the second, making about $175 in all.

It is thought that this will end the matter of violations of the new ordinance until the higher court has a chance to rule on the subject.

With the three men who were first
arraigned almost $500 has been paid out in fines for violating the provisions of the new ordinance, and it is now thought that all will observe the
law.

FOUND STOLEN STUFF.

William Farmer Locates Junk Which
Was Taken By Boy
Thieves.

Last week several boys stole a quantity of junk from William Farmer in Chester and the stuff was stored in an old coal house near the river.

Farmer identified his property this morning and immediately took steps to regain possession of it. He called at the mayor's office, but was referred to a justice. Later he was advised that, if he was positive about the ownership of the junk, he could avoid legal proceedings by taking it himself.

HOD CARRIERS' PROPOSAL.

Compromise on $2.25
a Day.

The hod carriers' union held a meeting Saturday evening in their hall. A committee was appointed to confer with the contractors looking to a compromise of the questions at issue. The committee is meeting with the bosses this afternoon and will report back to the organization tonight.

It is said the committee is empowered to make a proposition providing for a uniform price of $2.25 per day.

Smith-Gray.

John C. Gray and Miss Zada Smith, both of this city, were married by Father Smythe at St. Aloysius' church this morning at 8:30. They left on the noon train for a week's visit with Mr.
Gray's parents at East Palestine, after which they will reside here.

do we intend to do so, only as a matter of self-defense, as in the present instance.

the claims of the men just, and that is
why we insist upon having a conference with the manufacturers to mutually agree upon them, and give the
manufacturers an opportunity to point out what they considered unjust
among our claims, and then perhaps
we could 'reason together.'

"But we considered our claims worthy of more recognition than to be
further consideration.'"

Beaten on Walnut Street
Saturday Night.

William Urp, a ware grinder at the Knowles pottery, was assaulted on Walnut street Saturday night, and
was so badly used up that he had to
be assisted to the office of a physician.
headquarters.

SIX MEN CAUGHT IN POLICE NET

Frank Beatty, Just Out of the
and Is Fined.

TIM STRAIN WILL GO TO CANTON

Saturday Night And Sunday.

The police department was kept
busy Saturday night and Sunday morning. When their work was finished up early Sunday morning the
list showed that six victims had fallen
into the hands of the police.

Frank Beatty has only recently arrived from the works, and on Saturday night, with a few congenial spirits, started to make up for lost time.
Beatty invariably gets quarrelsome
when he gets a few drinks under his belt, and when he met Tim Strain on Franklin street he had no trouble in being accommodated with a fight. Officer Mahoney happened along and arrested both. When Strain faced the
sented with one of his honor's Wheeling stogies. Tim was at a loss to un-
with the authorities. Accordingly,
when the charge was read he had no
hesitation in pleading guilty to being disorderly and fighting. The mayor fined him $50 and costs. Officer Stafford took him to the workhouse
this morning, where he will remain
during the summer.

Beatty succeeded in raising the
amount of his fine, $9.60 and he gained
his liberty on Sunday morning.

Ed Graham was captured by Fire-
man Bettridge on Kossuth street Saturday night and taken to jail in the patrol. He was drunk and those in

Patrolman Woods found Ernest
Cline back of the opera house Saturday night, where he had picked out a nice quiet place to take a nap. He was taken to jail in the patrol and
less chance of his being annoyed. He
morning Mayor Davidson relieved him
of $6.60 of the amount, and he still had sufficient to buy a few bowls, provided he was judicious about it.

Annie Caplis became tired of East Liverpool and concluded to go to Chicago Saturday evening. She went to
of Assistant Ticket Agent Ryan concerning the fare and time of trains.
Miss Caplis was considerably the
worse for liquor and returned later
to ask a few more questions.

closed and those in charge left the place. The woman made her appear-
she found no one at the station became angry and broke a large plate
glass window. Officers Davidson and Aufderheide arrested her and she
spent the night in jail.

the amount of her fine, $6.60, and she was released Sunday evening. She
had enough money to return to her home in Chicago and she started Sunday night.

H. R. Grimes was using profanity at Jack Eckert's place on Market street
Saturday night and the proprietor
protested his innocence and after putting up security for his appearance,
the hearing was set for Monday.

It is thought Grimes changed his
mind when he got sober and concluded to allow the matter to rest where
it was.

William Spink was arrested by Officer Dawson today on Third street.
Spink was very drunk. He will be

ACTION BROUGHT AGAINST AN

Before Court.

Lisbon, April 15.—(Special.)—John Koehler, who conducts a wholesale
produce commission business in Pittsburg, filed suit here today against J.
W. Phillips, of East Palestine. It is

against the East Liverpool Ice & Coal company, which was set for a hearing
in court has been continued until Thursday morning, counsel being unable to attend tomorrow.

in common pleas court today, removing the case of D. E. Mather against
W. H. Booth to the circuit court. The case was tried in common pleas during
this term, when the petition was dismissed and the defendant given judgment for costs.

Sheriff Noragon will not take Jesse McGregor to Columbus until tomorrow morning.

A LISBON CHILD UPSETS HOT

Some of the Burning Liquid Got Down Its Throat,
Killing It.

Lisbon, April 15.—(Special.)—A one-year-old child of Samuel Hoover, of
the head on Saturday afternoon by
overturning a large bowl of hot soup.
Several hours later they succeeded in putting the child to sleep, and it never
wakened.

BOERS' EXPLOITS.

500 BRITISH REPORTED.

The News, As Yet Unconfirmed, Ex-
cites Much Apprehension
in London.

London, April 15. — (Special.) —
There is consternation and alarm in government circles, as well as among
the British public, over a report from Pretoria today that the Boers have captured General French and 500 British.

The report is not confirmed by official advices, but it has caused no end
of alarm nevertheless.

Shipped By Mrs. Smith to East Liverpool.

Pittsburg, April 15.—The vast quantity of stolen stuff which the police
Kahney, the Mt. Washington grocer,
and Detective P. E. Fitzpatrick, will be open today for the inspection of the public and the identification of property.

Mrs. May Smith, the boarding house keeper at 32 Fulton street, where the
detective was killed, is said to have
admitted that she shipped a trunkful
latter had some dress goods she wanted made up and Mrs. Smith said
she advised her to send them to an
pose of getting the work done cheaper
than she could here.

Sueprintendent O'Mara has sent to several cities in the hope of being able
to trace goods sent away by the
sponses.

The police authorities of this city
any shipment from Mrs. Smith. At both the express office and the C. & P. freight station it was denied that

D. A. Devine and Wm. E. Morrow
Compelled to Fork Over
Large Sums.

SCREEN ORDINANCE VIOLATED

It Was the Second Offense And the
Thought All Saloonmen Will Observe the Law Hereafter.

A hearing was had Saturday after-
for violating the screen ordinance.

Devine was among the six saloon-
ists against whom charges were made
on Thursday night, and the balance
of the cases were dismissed owing
to there having been a misunderstanding.
In the case of Devine it was different. He has a screen over the window at his place on Second street,
and according to the report of the
officers making the complaint, it was almost impossible to obtain a view of the interior while the glass was in
position.

A number of witnesses were examined, and at the conclusion of the testimony Mayor Davidson fined the saloon man $100 and costs, it being his
removed.

Officer Stafford arrested William Morrow Saturday night for violating
the screen ordinance. He was notified
to appear this morning for a hearing.

his screen doors closed after the hour
authorities appeared at city hall this
morning they found another charge
against Morrow awaiting action. The time for hearing was then changed
time he was fined $50 and costs on
the first charge and $100 and costs
on the second, making about $175 in
all.

matter of violations of the new ordinance until the higher court has a chance to rule on the subject.

out in fines for violating the provisions of the new ordinance, and it is
law.

William Farmer Locates Junk Which
Thieves.

Last week several boys stole a quantity of junk from William Farmer in Chester and the stuff was stored in
an old coal house near the river.

morning and immediately took steps
at the mayor's office, but was referred
to a justice. Later he was advised that, if he was positive about the ownership of the junk, he could avoid legal proceedings by taking it him-

HOD CARRIERS' PROPOSAL.

a Day.

The hod carriers' union held a meeting Saturday evening in their hall. A committee was appointed to confer
with the contractors looking to a com-
committee is meeting with the bosses this afternoon and will report back to
the organization tonight.

It is said the committee is empowered to make a proposition providing

Smith-Gray.

John C. Gray and Miss Zada Smith,
both of this city, were married by Father Smythe at St. Aloysius' church
this morning at 8:30. They left on the noon train for a week's visit with Mr.
which they will reside here.

Miss Borden, who lives with the Wheatley family, did not understand how to light the gas. She turned it on full force and then got a piece of paper, which she lighted and touched to the stove. The result was that the top of the stove and the pipe were blown off and Miss Borden's face and hair singed and her arm badly burned.

No Trouble Occurred.

When the hod carriers went on strike work on the new addition to the Laughlin plant was suspended. The Italians formerly engaged at grading streets on the Smith addition were employed by the contractors to wheel brick, and were all on hand ready to begin this morning. It was thought that the hod carriers' union would interfere, but the rainy weather made it impossible to resume work this morning.

Firemen's Quick Run.

The East End fire department made a quick run to Ralston's crossing Saturday. Some of the boys were cleaning out a dog kennel adjoining Rigby's residence, and in some way set fire to the straw. An alarm was sent to the central station, but they called the East End department. The blaze was extinguished without any damage and no service of the department was required except an inspection.

Only the Dog Suffered.

Some of the employees at the National plant rid the place of a bothersome dog by tying a tin can to its tail and starting it down the track. Fortunately it did not run on any street and no teams were scared or runaways caused, but such things often result from this kind of fun.

Kaylor Meetings Begin Tonight.

ANGRY MAN SHOT WIFE.

Nearly Killed Boy, Who Had Saved the Woman, and Then Took His Own Life.

New York, April 15.—Mrs. Kate Pitt, who was shot late Saturday night by her husband, Harry Pitt, is lying at her home very dangerously wounded. One of the bullets plowed a deep furrow under her right eye and another struck her back of the right ear. Thomas Welsh, a boy, who did chores about the Pitt home and who was also shot by the man, is in a hospital with a bullet in his abdomen, another in the left side and a third in the shoulder. The surgeons say that Mrs. Pitt may recover, but there is very little hope for the boy.

Pitt made a living by selling sand and stone to contractors and also carried on a beer bottling business in his own house, his wife attending to this part of it. He was of a quarrelsome disposition, and when he came home about midnight tried to get possession of a jug of whisky which his wife had hidden in the stove. Her efforts to keep him from the whisky so enraged him that he tried to brain her with a poker, but was prevented by the Welsh boy. This only added to his fury, and drawing his revolver he shot his wife and the boy, and then going into the next room killed himself.

MURDER OF KAHNEY BEING FASTENED ON THEM.

Pittsburg, April 15.—The murder of Grocer Thomas D. Kahney, of Mt. Washington, will be fastened upon the gang of burglars who killed Detective Patrick Fitzgerald. All three of the men and at least one of the women, it is thought, will be hanged. The Pittsburg police bureau is expectant, it might almost be said, sanguine, of these two results. Every effort is being directed toward their accomplishment. Almost every hour the labors of the detectives are rewarded with the discovery of some fact of importance in the web which they are weaving about the doomed gang.

Last night it was established that the three men were on Mt. Washington together on the night of the murder of Mr. Kahney and in the vicinity of his store. One witness was obtained who gave a positive identification of one of the men, and there are others who are expected to furnish valuable testimony against the others. Since Friday the detective bureau has kept men on Mt. Washington searching for traces of the men in the vicinity of the murdered grocer's home and store. Last night Detective Edward Barry brought to Central station Albert Mensinger, of 45 Prospect street, a youth of about 16 years of age. He furnished a positive identification of Robert D. Wilcox as a man he had seen within a square and a half of Kahney's place about 9 o'clock Thursday night. The murder was committed in the early hours of Friday morning. The young man also partially identified John D. Wright as one of two men he had seen with Wilcox, and was taken to Mercy hospital, where he gave the same sort of identification of Edward Wright. That is, he said, these two men had the same general appearance as those he had seen.

He was positive of his identification of Wilcox, however, and the detectives believe this identification and the association of the three men which will be proved, will go far toward establishing the connection of the men in their hands with the killing of Kahney.

Detective Superintendent Roger O'Mara left the public safety building about 9:15 o'clock last night, after being hastily summoned there on an urgent message from County Detective Robert G. Robinson. Robinson had had a long interview with the man who calls himself Robert D. Wilcox, and got him to consent to reveal his true identity to Superintendent O'Mara. The superintendent said:

"I am more than satisfied with the situation as it now stands. I am as certain as that I am here that we will convict the crowd of everything, including the Mt. Washington murder. Tonight I talked with Wilcox. He told me his true name and the address of his father and mother and other relatives. I will not give this out until I have communicated with that end. There is a whole lot that we know against these people, but it would be inadvisable to give it out at present."

The detectives are now satisfied that the true name of the two men who previously went under the alias of Wright is Biddle. Detective John Roach says that John Wright under pressure was made to admit that his name was Biddle, and that he has two brothers of the same name in this city.

MURDER OF KAHNEY BEING FASTENED ON THEM.

Pittsburg, April 15.—The murder of Grocer Thomas D. Kahney, of Mt. Washington, will be fastened upon the gang of burglars who killed Detective Patrick Fitzgerald. All three of the men and at least one of the women, it is thought, will be hanged. The Pittsburg police bureau is expectant, it might almost be said, sanguine, of these two results. Every effort is being directed toward their accomplishment. Almost every hour the labors of the detectives are rewarded with the discovery of some fact of importance in the web which they are weaving about the doomed gang.

Last night it was established that the three men were on Mt. Washington together on the night of the murder of Mr. Kahney and in the vicinity of his store. One witness was obtained who gave a positive identification of one of the men, and there are others who are expected to furnish valuable testimony against the others. Since Fridgy the detective bureau has kept men on Mt. Washington searching for traces of the men in the vicinity of the murdered grocer's home and store. Last night Detective Edward Barry brought to Central station Albert Mensinger, of 43 Prospect street, a youth of about 16 years of age. He furnished a positive identification of Robert D. Wilcox as a man he had seen within a square and a half of Kahney's place about 9 o'clock Thursday night. The murder was committed in the early hours of Friday morning. The young man also partially identified John D. Wright as one of two men he had seen with Wilcox, and was taken to Mercy hospital, where he gave the same sort of identification of Edward Wright. That is, he said, these two men had the same general appearance as those he had seen.

He was positive of his identification of Wilcox, however, and the detectives believe this identification and the association of the three men, which will be proved, will go far toward establishing the connection of the men in their hands with the killing of Kahney.

Detective Superintendent Roger O'Mara left the public safety building about 9:15 o'clock last night, after being hastily summoned there on an urgent message from County Detective Robert G. Robinson. Robinson had had a long interview with the man who calls himself Robert D. Wilcox, and got him to consent to reveal his true identity to Superintendent O'Mara. The superintendent said:

"I am more than satisfied with the situation as it now stands. I am as certain as that I am here that we will convict the crowd of everything, including the Mt. Washington murder. Tonight I talked with Wilcox. He told me his true name and the address of his father and mother and other relatives. I will not give this out until I have communicated with that end. There is a whole lot that we know against these people, but it would be inadvisable to give it out at present."

The detectives are now satisfied that the true name of the two men who previously went under the alias of Wright is Biddle. Detective John Roach says that John Wright under pressure was made to admit that his name was Biddle, and that he has two brothers of the same name in this city.

ABUSE OF THE MAILS

MAY ADOPT REFORM RULE

Circular Issued to About 400 Publishers of Newspapers Asking For Their Opinions—Premium Scheme Asserted to Be a Great Method of Abuse.

Washington, April 15.—Having repeatedly failed to secure remedial legislation from congress to prevent abuses of the privileges of second-class mail matter, the postoffice department officials had under consideration the question of adoption of a proposed rule by authority of the postmaster general to bring about the desired reforms. With this object in view, Mr. Edwin C. Madden, third assistant postmaster general, addressed a long circular letter to about 400 publishers of newspapers and periodicals, setting forth the objects sought to be accomplished by the proposed rule, and asking the following question:

In the judgment of those addressed, will a departmental rule be regarded as injurious to legitimate newspapers and periodicals, which will stop absolutely all premium inducements, direct or indirect, and of whatever character, for subscriptions? In other words, after a publisher has fixed a price on his publication, any bonus or premium given to the subscriber, or any combination with another thing except a second class publication, shall vitiate that subscription in its relation to the second-class rate of postage.

Mr. Madden added: "It is believed that such a rule as that proposed will be of great direct benefit to legitimate journalism, and that in a very large measure it will check this draft upon the public treasury for private advantage, with no compensating public benefit, through the elimination of an immense number of publications which are wholly sustained in their second-class status by patronage induced by some extraneous thing in conflict with the spirit of the law. Such a consummation has much of promise in the direction of better postal facilities and cheaper rates for other classes of mail matter."

The circular said the loss of revenue to the government from the abuses of the privileges of second-class matter is enormous, being estimated conservatively to be between $15,000,000 and $25,000,000 a year.

Regulations however, faithfully administered, are inadequate to accomplish material reform, and the most prolific means by which the law is circumvented remains undisturbed by regulation.

Further along the circular asserted in part that circulations running into the thousands have been built up by this premium process, for publications which, upon actual merit, could command no public patronage whatever. Such "subscriptions," except in an occasional instance where some actually meritorious publication employs the plan, represent in not literal sense a public interest in the literature, or in the news, to which it is claimed such publications are devoted.

MAIN BUILDING BURNED.

Fire Damages Blower Works. Near Boston.

Boston, April 15.—The main building of the extensive Blower works of the B. F. Sturtevant company, in the Jamaica Plain district, was burned, causing a loss of $350,000, fully insured. The concern manufactured various kinds of machinery and electrical goods, as well as blowers. All patterns and plans were destroyed. The company had recently added $75,000 worth of tools and machinery and had a large amount of electrical work ready for shipment. It also had a large number of engines and blowers for the government for use on battleships and cruisers in course of construction, all of which were destroyed. Superintendent Chamberlain states that the business will be carried on without much delay.

A PROBABLE MURDER.

Body With Clothes Partly Burned Found Near Gibson, Pa.

Connellsville, Pa., April 15.—Workmen on a Baltimore and Ohio gravel train found the body of a man lying 20 feet from the track near Gibson. His clothes burned off to the knees. There were no marks of a fire near at hand, where he could have been burned, no signs of a struggle, or indications that the body had been dragged to its place.

It is supposed that the man was murdered either on a train or elsewhere, his clothes fired, and the body then cast from the car. The body was brought to Morris & Co's morgue, but is unidentified. The man was about 30 years old, heavy set, and had a brown beard and black hair. He wore black trousers. Both legs were broken below the knees.

A RUN OF 227 NIGHTS.

PHENOMENAL SUCCESS OF THE VILLAGE POSTMASTER.

The Play Will be Seen at the Grand Wednesday Evening—Archie Boyd in Title Role.

"The Village Postmaster," with Archie Boyd in the title role, comes to the Grand in East Liverpool, on Wednesday evening, April 17, after a long and successful run of 227 nights at the Fourteenth street theatre, New York, and comes direct from its third big engagement there, and is quite likely to please the theatre-going people during its stay here. The comments of some of New York's leading papers may prove of interest:

"New York has never seen a better drama of rural life than 'The Village Postmaster.' The play throughout carries with it a smell of new mown hay, apple blossoms and pure country air. It will do a person good to witness it."—New York Herald.

"It's a better play than the 'Old Homestead,' because it is well balanced and true to life."—N. Y. Mail and Express.

"It will make a fortune for its authors."—New York Times.

"'The Village Postmaster' is like a vacation in the country. The play will be enjoyed by anyone who loves the country."—Brooklyn Eagle.

"'The Village Postmaster' is a play like both 'Blue Jeans' and 'The Old Homestead.'"—New York Sun.

"Another 'Old Homestead.' No play of the same kind has been presented with such care, or with more scrupulous fidelity to the period shown. 'The Village Postmaster' is admirably played by every one concerned."—New York World. Boston and Providence notices.

The story told by the drama is an unconventional one of love and disappointment, coming out all right as all love stories do. It's also unconventional in its setting, which is in a New Hampshire village in 1852, during the presidency of Franklin Pierce. Scenery and costumes are in keeping with the time, the former being elaborate in detail and pleasing to the eye, as well as being most realistic. A brief resume of the story of the play will no doubt be interesting. The first scene is in the village store and post-office with the usual loungers and gossipers. The scene changes to the village green on training day, a day familiar to the elder generation as the annual holiday when every able bodied citizen was compelled to appear and go through the manual of arms. This was always observed as a general holiday and was observed with great jollification. The act ends with a rainstorm of real water which breaks up the festivities.

The second act shows the interior of the Baptist minister's house where an old fashioned donation party is in progress. The third act shows the farm yard with a big old fashioned threshing machine in operation; the last act, the interior of a country church, where preparations are being made for the wedding of the postmaster's daughter. All these are elaborately pictured and constitute no small part of the entertainment.

Mr. Boyd, who heads the company this season, is a worthy character actor of the old school. His long experience with Denman Thompson's part, Joshua Whitcomb, in the "Old Homestead" and Uncle Nat in "Shore Acres" gives him special fitness for the somewhat similar part of Seth Huggins, the postmaster, which he plays clearly and well. He will be supported by the complete New York cast, including Miss Angela Russell, a young actress of unusual ability, whose excellent impersonation of Miranda, the postmaster's daughter, has been very highly commended. The production will be exactly the same as when the play was seen at the Fourteenth street theatre, New York. Tickets can be exchanged at box office at 8 o'clock tonight. Tickets for exchange can be purchased at Will Reed's drug store.

A BIG COAL DEAL.

A Blanket Mortgage May Be Filed At St. Clairsville, O., Today.

Wheeling, W. Va., April 15.—The Empire Coal Mining company deal, it was expected, will be closed up today, when President W. P. DeArmit, Mr. J. F. Newman and other directors, it was expected, will place on record at St. Clairsville a blanket mortgage on the 30,000 acres of coal and five going mines, in security of the $2,000,000 cash furnished on the bonds of the company by the Fidelity Title and Trust company, of Pittsburgh. This mortgage covers over 400 pieces of coal and makes up a huge volume of 470 typewritten pages, or 117,500 words. Several lawyers and stenographers have been engaged in compiling this big legal document for several days. One thousand dollars in stamps are required, the recording fee will be several hundred dollars, and altogether the cost of getting the mortgage on record will foot up $7,500.

The distribution of the money on this deal, it was expected, will be made today. Checks to the amount of $1,250,000 will be given three banks by the Empire company, and the banks in turn will make the payments to the property owners.

L. F. Newman, of Springfield, Mass., the company's financial man, when asked last evening for an expression as to the attachment sworn out against him and C. F. Birdseye at Springfield and at Pittsburgh by Broker George G. Dwyer, of New York, replied that it was merely a species of blackmail, and he intimated that upon his return to Springfield he would institute suits for heavy damages. His explanation is that Dwyer was employed by Birdseye, a New York attorney, on work connected with the old Empire company, which sold out to the Newman syndicate, and that whatever is due Dwyer is owed by Birdseye, not by Newman. DeArmit, Schwab or other Pittsburghers interested in the new Empire Coal Mining company.

Alliance, April 15.—A day or two since an Alliance lumberman went to the woods to measure up some lumber preparatory to cutting, and after a busy day in the woods he came home ill, suffering with what appeared to Dr. J. Alliance, April 15.—A day or two since an Alliance lumberman went to the woods to measure up some lumber preparatory to cutting, and after a busy day in the woods he came home ill, suffering with what appeared to Dr. J. A. Roach, the attending physician, to be grip. However, the next morning when the man arose his head was drawn around to one side, and a large lump had formed on the side of his neck.

The swelling was extremely painful and the physician could not account for it. Later on the entire family of eight people were afflicted in apparently the same manner. The physician admitted that the disease was like the bubonic plague.

HUNTING FOR THE POLES.

Several expeditions are now on their way to the Antarctic region to unravel its secrets as far as possible, and to discover the south pole if they can. The southern region is practically an unknown one, while scores of scientists have explored the opposite end of the earth. The chances, therefore, for adding to the sum of human knowledge by an investigation of the less known field are almost limitless, and since the world abounds in restless spirits, eager to do something never done before the wonder is that the Antarctic zone has been neglected so long. Men have pushed their way poleward until the limit has almost been reached in the north.

But is it worth while? The intrepid Peary, for instance, is expending his energies and risking his life in work which, even if successful, can yield but small returns. He is a man of fine talents and, it strikes us, could be vastly more useful to the world in some other field. Counting the suffering and sacrifice, the perils which must be encountered, it would appear that we could better dispense with further knowledge of a land which must forever remain a dreary, useless waste, than that men whose lives are of value to the world should wear themselves out in an effort to penetrate the frozen region.

CRIMINALS WITH A PULL.

The startling revelation that Pittsburg, whose officers boast of having the best governed city in America, has been harboring for months a band of desperate, hardened criminals, who hesitated not an instant to add two murders to their other misdeeds when exposure became imminent, has set the people to talking and thinking. The superintendent of police in that city, in trying to account for the crime, makes a statement that should shame the authorities. He complains that too many criminals enjoy facilities for escaping the penalties of their crimes. The beginner has friends and relatives who plead his case and mitigate the punishment, while the hardened offender frequently has a "pull," either with the police or the police magistrate and escapes lightly or altogether. That there is truth in these admissions, as regards not only Pittsburg but other large cities, cannot be denied, and the fact is disgraceful to the people who tolerate it. Not to punish crime is to invite it.

HARMING THE CITY.

The harm which sensation-mongers can do a town was pointed out fairly and fully in these columns on Friday. It is bad enough when they confine their efforts to the home field, but that is not enough for them. They must go outside and damage the city's interests in the large cities. One of these mischief-makers, who is probably of the same crowd as the authors of the fake lynching, which he did his best to make real, has a "special" in the Cincinnati Enquirer of Sunday, making dire predictions of a "long, stubborn strike," affecting 14,000 pottery workers. That will affect the town and its credit away from home in the way this penny-a-liner desires; but people with the city's interests at heart have a right to protest. It is no wonder East Liverpool is losing patience with such newspaper writers as seem determined to work only for the city's harm.

The United States circuit court at New Orleans has decided that mules are not munitions of war, however damaging they may be to the enemy or to those who use them. The Boers applied for an injunction to prevent their shipment to the British in Africa—a proceeding that seems unaccountably strange, since the mules which the British owned are credited with having won at least one conspicuous victory for the Boer side.

Twelve thousand Spaniards went from Spain to Cuba to remain last year. Had the island remained under Spanish rule the immigration would have been in the other direction.

A Vermont bank cashier has got away with $90,000, or $30,000 more than the bank's capital. He certainly looked after business, but who looked after him?

And now they are saying that the Goer general, DeWet, is crazy. At all events, there is a good deal of method in his madness.

AT Y. M. C. A. ROOMS.

A Large Audience to Hear the Evangelist—Great Growth of Membership.

There was a good crowd out at the Y. M. C. A. hall yesterday afternoon to hear Evangelist Kaylor, who spoke on "The Mask of Human Deceit," taking the story of I. Kings 14, as a text. At the close several men rose as desiring to lead a better life. Three confessed Christ at an after meeting.

The boys' meeting at 2:30 had but a small attendance. Next Sunday at the same time J. H. McCoy will address boys on "The Effects of Cigarette Smoking," using illustrative charts. Mothers are urged to send their boys to hear Mr. McCoy.

Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. the secretary will conduct the Bible class. He sends a cordial invitation to men, especially young converts, to come and study God's word.

Rev. J. H. Platts, of Mingo Junction, former secretary of the Y. M. C. A. here, visited the rooms Saturday night, and the Sunday meeting and was greeted by a host of friends.

There have been 65 membership fees paid in during the past month. If the boys will hustle they ought to treble this by May 15.

NEARLY 50 NEW MEMBERS.

Added to the U. P. Church Since the Special Meetings Began.

Evangelist A. H. Kaylor concluded his labors at the First U. P. church yesterday, and this evening resumes them at the Second church in the East End. He preached impressive sermons both morning and evening yesterday to large congregations. A number of new members were received and baptized at the morning service yesterday.

During the four weeks which the evangelist has labored at the First church, nearly 50 new members have been added to the church and interest in all lines of church work has been greatly stimulated.

The Coming Attraction.

Much interest is felt in the play, "The Village Postmaster," with the quaint pictures it furnishes of New England rural life and the familiar characters it portrays. One is interested in the odd features of training day, no less than in the evening wedding in the village church, and fascination grows as the action of the play progresses. Archie Boyd appears in the title role, and those who recall this brilliant actor's impersonation of Joshua Whitcomb in "The Old Homestead" and Uncle Nat in "Shore Acres," will need no further assurance of a very entertaining performance at the Grand next Wednesday evening.

The Boy Aboard Ship.

Mr. Frank T. Bullen, who was once a ship boy himself, makes in his book, "The Men of the Merchants' Service," these mournful statements concerning the sea life of young Jacky:

"Within the memory of middle aged men a boy on board a ship was the butt, the vicarious sacrifice to all the accumulated ill temper of the ship. Today tales are told of the treatment of boys in 'Geordie' colliers that are enough to make the flesh creep to hear. In those days it was the privilege of every man on board to ill treat the boy, and if, as very often happened, the poor little wretch died under it—well, what of it?—it was only a boy.

"And the peculiar part of it all was that the brutes who did these evil deeds prided themselves that their actions were right and proper. There was only one way of training a boy—with a rope's end if it were handy; if not, a fist or a boot would do, but he must be beaten.

"One man whom I shall always remember, as smart a seaman as ever trod a ship's deck, beat me until there was not a square inch of my small body unbruised. Scarcely a watch passed that I did not receive some token of his interest in my welfare, and on two occasions he kicked me with such violence that with all the will in the world to obey his orders I was perfectly helpless. My only wonder is that he did not kill me.

"Yet when I left the ship he bade me quite an affectionate farewell, bidding me remember how hard he had labored for my benefit, that every blow he had given me was solely aimed at making me more useful and fitting me for my position."

An Indulgent Father.

"Her father is a Chicago packer, isn't he?"

"Yes, and very wealthy. Why, he gave his daughter a specially built piano playing attachment with an extra large pedaling surface."

"What was that for?"

A Legal Quibble.

"There is a story," the doctor said, "of a man who was sued for debt not long ago. The case went against him, and the court gave judgment for $300. His lawyer told him he would have to pay it, as he was an unmarried man. He hustled out and in a few hours came back with a wife and a plea in due form that he needed his salary for the support of his family. He got off free."

"I don't believe that was constitutional," said the professor after a moment's reflection.

"Why not?"

"Because it was annex post facto."—Chicago Tribune.

BRET HARTE'S LATEST PICTURE.

Comparative Longevity.

It has often been remarked that while nothing is so uncertain as the duration of any given human life nothing is more certain than the aggregate of years which may be assigned to a group of 100 persons or more at any particular age. The expectation of life at a given age, to use the actuarial phrase, differs considerably, as might be expected, in different countries, and Englishmen may be surprised to learn that they are not the longest living among the white races.

At the age of 20 an Englishman in average health may expect to live 42 years, and any life office will grant him a policy based on that probability. The American's expectation is for a slightly longer period. On the other hand, a German lad of 20 can count upon little more than 39 years and a half.

It would seem, therefore, that the restlessness attributed to the American temperament does not necessarily conduce to the shortening of life nor the composure of the German to its prolongation. Possibly the better feeding and clothing of Americans in the lower classes of the population are the principal causes of their greater longevity. Their position is, at any rate, maintained in later as well as in earlier years.

The American who has reached 60 may look to complete 14 years more, while the Britisher's expectation is only about 13 years and 10 months and the German's as nearly as possible 12 months less. Both at 20 and at 60 the Frenchman's prospect is a little better than the German's and a little worse than the Englishman's.—London Globe.

Economic Training of Gunners.

The method used in the United States navy for the economical training of the gunners is very interesting. It is a well known fact that the cost of firing one of the large guns used in the navy is very great, amounting sometimes to $1,000 or more. To save this expense a very simple method is employed. In the case of the large guns an ordinary Remington rifle is secured in the breech of the gun and directly in the center of the bore, so that when it is fired its bullet takes the same direction as that of the regular projectile. The large gun is sighted in the usual manner. On account of the lesser velocity of the small bullet the target is placed close to the ship and is made correspondingly small.

The method used for the 6 pounder or other small guns is slightly different, as instead of the small rifle a wooden or dummy cartridge the same size as the regular cartridge is employed. Through the center of this wooden cartridge runs a rifle barrel which is loaded with a .44 caliber cartridge. This latter method has the additional advantage of giving the gun crew practice in loading as well as firing.—Washington Star.

When Corks Float Upright.

Place one on end upon a table and around it place six others. Seize them all together and plunge them under water so as to wet them completely. Then remove your hand gently and let them take their own position in the water, when you will find that they will stand upright, as if supporting one another. This is because the water that penetrates the cork will make them cling together.

YOUNG AMERICAN RELEASED.

Fought With Boers—Was Arrested Several Times.

Paris, April 15.—"Among the Boer prisoners who recently arrived in Lisbon from Lourenço Marquez," said a special dispatch from the Portuguese capital, "was a young American, Mr. Randolph Martinsen, who described himself as a son of the president of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad. He was captured by the British, but released as an American on promising not to fight again. Subsequently he was arrested in Lourenço Marquez at the request of the British authorities under suspicion of being a Boer agent."

"Mr. Martinsen, on being brought here, secured his release through the American charge d'affaires, and his father sent him money to pay his passage home. According to his representations he was aide de camp to Colonel John Blake, commander of the Irish brigade."

A dispatch to the London Daily Mail, from Lourenço Marquez, cabled to the Associated Press, March 11, said that Mr. Martinsen, who was said to have resigned a post in the United States army to join the Boer forces, had been shipped for Lisbon on the Portuguese transport Zaire, which carried 103 Boer families, after he had made an ineffectual attempt to obtain consular protection.

Novel and Attractive.

The illustration pictures a gown in light tan cloth with the long skirt plaited over the hips and across the back, the plaits being held in form for the depth of about six inches by lines of stitching, below which the cloth flows out gracefully. The bolero is rounded out at the neck both back and front.

The New Hats.

The spring hats are all flat as pancakes and with but little trimming. Flowers are seen everywhere, and they were never so beautiful. Big roses are the popular thing now, red and pink being the favorite shades, but for later wear there are tiny little roses in clusters, pink chiefly. These are the genuine little "button roses," and they trim these flat hats very sweetly. Follage is immensely popular. The velvet leaves are lovely, of course, but the frosty effects are the latest. They come in shaded reds and browns and purples and greens, real autumnal tints, but ever so pretty even now. These autumn flowers are a relief from the gayer shades of summer, in itself a recommendation for the vogue.

WOMAN AND FASHION

Novel and Attractive.

The illustration pictures a gown in light tan cloth with the long skirt platted over the hips and across the back, the plaits being held in form for the depth of about six inches by lines of stitching, below which the cloth flows out gracefully. The bolero is rounded out at the neck both back and front.

The New Hats.

The spring hats are all flat as pancakes and with but little trimming. Flowers are seen everywhere, and they were never so beautiful. Big roses are the popular thing now, red and pink being the favorite shades, but for later wear there are tiny little roses in clusters, pink chiefly. These are the genuine little "button roses," and they trim these flat hats very sweetly. Foliage is immensely popular. The velvet leaves are lovely, of course, but the frosty effects are the latest. They come in shaded reds and browns and purples and greens, real autumnal tints, but ever so pretty even now. These autumn flowers are a relief from the gayer shades of summer, in itself a recommendation for the vogue.

KWANG SUS' RETURN DESIRED

Recently Pointed Out to the Chinese Prince the Necessity of the Emperor Coming Back to Peking—No Reply Received.

Peking, April 15.—Komours Yutaro, the Japanese minister, accompanied by General Yamaguchi, the Japanese commander, recently called upon Prince Ching and notified him that the return of Emperor Kwang Su to Peking was urgently desired. Prince Ching was informed that the emperor's wishes would be respected by the foreign troops and that every courtesy would be shown him.

It was pointed out to the Chinese plenipotentiary that the emperor's return was of the highest possible importance as affecting the maintenance of the integrity of the Chinese empire, and that he should come accompanied by every available soldier, by at least 20,000 men if possible. These troops, it was further contended by the Japanese minister, must be sent into Manchuria, as the Russians reported great disturbances there, and it was not right that the task of quelling the trouble should be thrown upon the shoulders of one nation.

Finally Prince Ching was assured that, if the 20,000 Chinese troops could not suppress the disorders in Manchuria, other powers would send an international force to co-operate with China, which all the powers regarded as a friendly power.

No reply having been received to this communication, Li Hung Ching was notified to the same effect, and told that Emperor Kwang Su must give an immediate answer.

The conduct of the ministers of the powers over the negotiations with the Chinese plenipotentiaries causes much adverse comment among the military authorities. Their dilatory tactics have prevented what might have been accomplished about two months ago. Even now the meetings of the ministers are postponed for the most trivial causes. For instance, the desire of one minister to go on a picnic to the Tombs of the Ming Dynasty prevented the holding of a meeting for a number of days.
Then M. De Giers and other ministers insisted upon celebrating Easter, and thus a week was consumed. In a third case an unnecessary visit by one minister to Tien Tsin held up the negotiations for four days. These are fair illustrations of what has been almost continuous from the beginning.

THREE PERSONS KILLED.

Struck by a Train at South Wilkes-barre, Pa.—Another Person Injured.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 15.—A party of four people, while crossing the tracks of the Lehigh Valley railroad at South Wilkesbarre, were run down by the Buffalo express, going north.
Three of the party were killed and one injured. The dead are:
Morris O'Connor, aged 41.
Mrs. Morris O'Connor, aged 39.
Mrs. Frank Cramer, aged 40.
Frank Cramer was injured.

Cudahy and Son May Go.

Omaha, Neb., April 15.—Edward A.
Cudahy said that his going to Dallas, Texas, would depend entirely upon the result of County Attorney Fields' visit to that city, in connection with the alleged confession of H. C. Henderson to complicity in the abduction of young Edward Cudahy, last December. Should it become practically certain that Henderson was one of the kidnapers, Mr. Cudahy and his son, it was expected, will leave for Dallas this week, when the young man, it was expected, will attempt to identify Henderson.

death.

Sir E. W. Watkin Dead.

London, April 15.—Sir Edward Wil-

HER SONS OBJECTED.

Salem Man Got a Marriage License
And Returned It.

Beaver, Pa., April 15.—On April 8, 1901, Will C. Burham, of Monaca, and Rachel Brooks, of Shannopin, were granted a license. He gave his age as 35, and her's was marked down at 40 years. Clerk Crowl was surprised last week when he received a letter from Burham written in Salem, O., stating that his marriage was declared
off and the license was returned.

He gave his reason for giving up the idea of marriage that the bride was a widow and had a couple of sons who objected seriously to the union. The objections were made so very pointed that Burham decided to postpone it.
He has not given up hope entirely,
however.

BALLOT REFORM.

It and Other Subjects May Come Up In the Legislature This Week.

Harrisburg, April 15.—Action on the ballot reform bills, the election of a Democratic state chairman, the expected visit of Senator Quay, the Fox capital bill, amendments to the congressional appropriation bill, the anticipated introduction of the general appropriation bill and the consequent fixing of a time for final adjournment may come up in the legislature this
week.

The ballot reform subject grows more interesting as the end of the session approaches. There may yet be something sensational done in the way of an election law. The complete repeal of the Baker act and the substitution of a law that allows the old vest pocket ticket is at present more than a probability. Senator Quay is coming here soon to confer with his friends and political enemies on the subject. Mr. Quay is disposed to go to the limit on ballot reform. Many of his lieutenants are objecting to the elimination of the circle, but he is willing to give it up and then go further.

The final adjournment bee is buzzing very lively these days. These are pretty days in Harrisburg. The air is balmy, buds are bursting and the grass is growing green. To be kept indoors for six or eight hours each day is becoming wearisome to the members of the house. Many of them are farmers and they see work piling up at home while they play at statesmanship. There is a plan on foot now to get an agreement for final adjournment on May 22. It is thought that by this time all the work can be completed.

Arthur Kirk, head of the big powder manufacturing firm of Pittsburg, has a hobby, and that hobby is roadmak-
ing. For years he has devoted much of his time to the study, and for several sessions he has appeared here with a bill to provide good highways
for the state. He is here this session.
His proposition is to have the state erect a highway the entire length of the state. It must be 60 feet in width, and a double track trolley road
is to be built in connection with it.
When the whole thing is completed,
the railway is to be sold to the highest bidder, with the provision that the road is to be maintained.

CROWN PRINCE'S VISIT.

Vienna, April 15.—Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany arrived in Vienna, in acceptance of an invitation from Emperor Francis Joseph, who, with the Austrian arch-dukes, greeted him at the railway station. A large and enthusiastic concourse awaited his arrival. Subsequently the emperor received the crown prince in private audience and later returned his visit.

Amid popular demonstrations of the most friendly character, the crown prince drove to the Capuchin mausoleum, where, on behalf of Emperor William, he deposited wreaths on the tombs of Empress Elizabeth Crown Prince Rudolph and Archduke

Albrecht.

A state banquet in his honor was given at the Hofburg, attended by the members of the imperial house, the ministers and members of the diplomatic corps. A reception followed, and then all attended a gala performance at the opera.

Three Theatrical Men Arrested.

were arrested in this city last night,
charged with violation of the penal code in connection with the raising and lowering of curtains for a theatrical performance on Sunday. The men are charged with having pre-duced a burlesque on "Uncle Tom's

the Academy of Music, De Wolf Hopper having played the imitation of Uncle Tom. All three were released

KWANG SUS' RETURN DESIRED

Peking, April 15.—Komours Yutaro,
the Japanese minister, accompanied by General Yamaguchi, the Japanese

Prince Ching and notified him that
the return of Emperor Kwang Su to

HER SONS OBJECTED.

And Returned It.

Beaver, Pa., April 15.—On April 8, 1901, Will C. Burham, of Monaca, and Rachel Brooks, of Shannopin, were granted a license. He gave his age
as 35, and her's was marked down at 40 years. Clerk Crowl was surprised last week when he received a letter from Burham written in Salem, O., stating that his marriage was declared
off and the license was returned.

idea of marriage that the bride was a widow and had a couple of sons who objected seriously to the union. The objections were made so very pointed
that Burham decided to postpone it.
He has not given up hope entirely,
however.

AN UNEQUALED RECORD.

THERE IS A RAPIDLY INCREASING VOLUME OF

East Liverpool Evidence Rolling Up for the Great Medicine, Dr. A. W.
Chase's Nerve Pills.

It would seem that hardly anyone can take Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills without receiving marked benefit. The wonderful action of this medicine in putting people on their feet who are in a weak, rundown condition is the talk of every place they are known. It is only a short time since they first came to East Liverpool, yet today they are more in evidence for merit with East Liverpool people than all other medicines combined.

Mr. B. L. Updegraff, of No. 169 Fifth street, East Liverpool, O., says:
"As a general and nerve tonic I can recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkin's drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets. I was at the time feeling run down and nervous—not up to the mark in health and needed a tonic. The medicine did its work nicely and I regained tone, strength and energy again."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medical company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are

BALLOT REFORM.

It and Other Subjects May Come Up In the Legislature This

Harrisburg, April 15.—Action on the ballot reform bills, the election of a Democratic state chairman, the expected visit of Senator Quay, the Fox
capital bill, amendments to the congressional appropriation bill, the anticipated introduction of the general
appropriation bill and the consequent
fixing of a time for final adjournment
may come up in the legislature this
week.

The ballot reform subject grows
more interesting as the end of the session approaches. There may yet be something sensational done in the way of an election law. The complete
repeal of the Baker act and the substitution of a law that allows the old
vest pocket ticket is at present more than a probability. Senator Quay is coming here soon to confer with his friends and political enemies on the subject. Mr. Quay is disposed to go to the limit on ballot reform. Many
of his lieutenants are objecting to
the elimination of the circle, but he
further.

The final adjournment bee is buzzing very lively these days. These
are pretty days in Harrisburg. The
air is balmy, buds are bursting and
the grass is growing green. To be kept indoors for six or eight hours
each day is becoming wearisome to
the members of the house. Many of them are farmers and they see work
piling up at home while they play at statesmanship. There is a plan on foot now to get an agreement for final adjournment on May 22. It is thought that by this time all the work
can be completed.

Arthur Kirk, head of the big powder manufacturing firm of Pittsburgh, has a hobby, and that hobby is roadmak-
ing. For years he has devoted much of his time to the study, and for several sessions he has appeared here
with a bill to provide good highways
for the state. He is here this session.
His proposition is to have the state
erect a highway the entire length of the state. It must be 60 feet in width, and a double track trolley road
is to be built in connection with it.
When the whole thing is completed,
the railway is to be sold to the highest bidder, with the provision that
the road is to be maintained.

Vienna, April 15.—Crown Prince

invitation from Emperor Francis Joseph, who, with the Austrian arch-
dukes, greeted him at the railway sta-

course awaited his arrival. Subsequently the emperor received the
crown prince in private audience and
later returned his visit.

Amid popular demonstrations of the

mausoleum, where, on behalf of Emperor William, he deposited wreaths
on the tombs of Empress Elizabeth, Crown Prince Rudolph and Archduke
Albrecht.

A state banquet in his honor was given at the Hofburg, attended by the members of the imperial house, the
ministers and members of the diplomatic corps. A reception followed,
and then all attended a gala performance at the opera.

Three Theatrical Men Arrested.

New York, April 15.—Dan Daly, De Wolf Hopper and William A. Brady
were arrested in this city last night,
charged with violation of the penal code in connection with the raising and lowering of curtains for a theatrical performance on Sunday. The men are charged with having pre-
duced a burlesque on "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at a vaudeville performance at
the Academy of Music, De Wolf Hopper having played the imitation of Uncle Tom. All three were released

FINE NEW CHURCH DEDICATED

New Structure Finished In Toledo. Father Hannin Acted as the Architect, Superintendent of Construction and Staked Off the Ground.

Toledo, April 15.—Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, Minn., assisted by Bishop Horstmann, of Cleveland; Bishop Foley, of Detroit, and about 200 prominent Catholic clergymen from different parts of the United States, Sunday, dedicated St. Patrick's church, said to be one of the handsomest church buildings in the country. This church will stand as a monument to Father Edward Hannin, who, though 75 years of age, did the architectural work, superintended the entire construction and even staked off the ground. There was no other architect and no other boss on the structure. The building is Gothic in style, but is said to be of a design never before attempted in architecture. The entire building is of blue sandstone, quarried in especially large blocks, which are laid in rock-faced style. The sides abound in graceful buttresses, which are 110 feet high and have ornamented pinnacles. The main entrance is especially beautiful. On either side of the doors are three granite columns of soft red color, resting on ornamental bases and crowded with richly carved capitals. The opening is finished with a Gothic arch surmounted by a shapely-pointed pediment, finished off with a Greek cross.

The tower is surrounded by a number of pinnacles varied in size. Higher up on the tower and just at the base of the spire are other shapely-pointed pinnacles surmounted with pinnacles. From these pinnacles project four water spouts of scorpion-like form. The windows are historic, in each of the six double windows are two apostles in life size.

of the parish for about 37 years. He has a large acquaintance in different parts of the country and received a large number of contributions from eastern friends.

In the gallery front and immediately over the center aisle is a painting about five by about ten feet. It represents Mary Magdalene at the feet of Our Saviour, and he gently reprimanding the pharisees for objecting to his receiving and conversing with a sinner.

The church cost about $200,000. Archbishop Ireland spoke from the text, "Jesus Christ, the same today, yesterday and forever the same." His sermon was a defense of Christianity. In conclusion, he said:

"Therefore, let us build him Christian temples. Let us invite men into the sanctuaries. Let us carry heaven's inspiration into mart and workshop and foundry. We must have forges, and factories, and industries, but these have no moral health of themselves. Colleges, schools, libraries will help us to know, but this is not all. Potent armies and navies will win us victories on bloody fields, but these will not give us moral health and probity. Plans for moral reform must fall, if based on material things. They must always fall if not based on Jesus.

"Let us today, in this fair city of Toledo, dedicate this temple to Christ. What you who have toiled and striven and done for this edifice, you have done for Christ, and his cause. As you look from the sanctuary to the portal, your faith in Jesus Christ and his cause takes on new life in you."

Then turning, Archbishop Ireland pronounced upon Father Hannin commendation that was masterly, tender, delicate and beautiful.

NEW CROATION CHURCH.

Dedication of St. Rockus at Johnstown, Pa., With Great Ceremony.

Johnstown, Pa., April 15.—The dedication of St. Rockus Catholic church, in this city, occurred Sunday. The exercises lasted most of the day, beginning with a parade that preceded the services about 10 o'clock. The church has no pastor at present and Rev. John N. Bausch, pastor of St. Mary's German Catholic church, corner of Broad street and Third avenue, was designated by Bishop Phelan, of Pittsburgh, to conduct the services at 10 o'clock. Rev. Father Bekowac, of the Croation church in Allegheny, assisted Father Bausch.

The services were in Croation and were impressive. The parade, which occurred before the dedication of the church, was a big affair. There were several bands and several hundred men in line, many of them mounted and all costumed in gorgeous uniforms. The Croation societies were represented.

About 2 o'clock in the afternoon a big banquet was given at the Croation hall and another parade followed this. At 3 o'clock there were more services at the church and in the evening another ceremony. Visitors were present from Allegheny, South Fork, Wilmore and other places.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON, THE MOSES OF THE AFRO-AMERICAN RACE.

Booker T. Washington, founder of the Tuskegee Institute For Colored Students, is just now making his bow as an author. His autobiographical volume, "Up From Slavery," recently issued, is being highly praised by the reviewers.

THE DOMINIE.

Professor Samuel M. Woodbridge of the New Brunswick (N. J.) Theological seminary has resigned on account of increasing years.

The Rev. G. C. Woodruff of Magnolia, Minn., is said to be the oldest clergyman in the Methodist Episcopal church. He was born in 1807 and has been a preacher for 75 years.

The will of the late Felix R. Brunot of Pittsburg bequeaths $33,000 to St. Peter's Episcopal church of Helena, Mon., and $500,000 for educational work in the Episcopal church.

Dr. H. Adler, the chief rabbi of the British empire, is now in his sixty-second year. An oriental scholar of great learning, he is identified in many reforms within and without the Hebrew communion.

POLITICAL QUIPS.

The people are to be trusted. It is only the politicians who ought to be watched.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Governor Odell naturally feels that he has a chance for the presidency. The Vans have had it once, the Macs have it now, and the O's are willing to have it.—New York World.

Tom Johnson of Cleveland and Sam Jones of Toledo would make a good presidential ticket on a platform of admission that all the statesmen come from Ohio, anyhow.—Sioux City Tribune.

By the new system of ventilation of the hall of the house of representatives each member will be given 100 cubic feet of fresh air per minute. And the average member will be able to heat it as fast as it is given to him.—Washington Post.

House Gowns.

All the newest designs in costumes intended for ordinary wear during the earlier part of the day are simple in character and can be easily made at home by any one who has the time to spare and without very much expense, for, on account of the lateness of the season, dress materials can be purchased just now for considerably less than their original value, says the Washington Star.

Loose fitting blouses and coats are still very popular, and so long as that particular style continues fashionable it will not be difficult for ladies to make up their own dresses, and this means a great saving of money.

Innocent.

The Father—My daughter, sit, must have the same amount of money after she is married that she had before.

The Suitor—I wouldn't deprive her of it for anything.—Brooklyn Life.

Forgot Himself.

Old Lady—My poor man, what does this letter say? I haven't my glasses.
Tramp—Please, mum, it says I am deaf and dumb, and if yer kin give me a few cents.—Exchange.

Rapid Transit.

"Rather a large boy for half fare, isn't he, sir?"

"Yes, he is now, but he was a small boy when we started."—Moonshine.

His Sad Blunder.

Yes, it was a sad blunder.

He thought the children were in the other room, but it so happened that it was occupied by his wife and a lachrymose neighbor. We all know these sensitive women who weep on the slightest provocation, who begin to sniffle when they talk of their woes, this being really little more than a bid for words of comfort, and this woman was one of them. What had happened is quite immaterial. Something had been said or done that had completely upset her, and in her appeal for solace she snuffled.

As before remarked, he thought the children were in the other room, and one of the children had been suffering from cold in the head. Of course every one knows how annoying a youngster with a cold in the head can be, and he was not in the best of humor anyway.

Oh, yes; it was a sad blunder, but even blunders have their compensations. The lachrymose one does not come to that house for sympathy as she formerly did.—Chicago Post.

His Titles.

It was evident in his swagger that he was a scion of the British aristocracy, and the most casual observer could not have failed to note that he was a stranger to the city. He touched a well dressed, auburn haired young man who was looting in front of a Broadway hotel on the shoulder.

"Pardon me, me dear man, but could I trouble you for a match?" After lighting his cigar he continued: "Bah Jove, this is a remarkable city! This is me first visit to New York, d'you know. I'm a deuced stranger, but on the other side I'm a person of importance. I am Sir Francis Daffy, Knight of the Garter, Knight of the Bath, Knight of the Double Eagle, Knight of the Golden Fleece, Knight of the Iron Cross. D'you mind telling me your name, me dear man?"

Replied he of the auburn hair in a deep, rich brogue:

"Me name is Michael Murphy, night before last, night before that, last alight, tonight and every night—Michael Murphy."—New York Sun.

The Way to Force Plants to Branch.

There is only one way in which a plant can be forced to branch, and that is by cutting off the stalk. The plant thus interfered with will make an effort to grow, and either a new shoot will be sent up to take the place of the lost top or several shoots will be sent out along the stalk. If but one starts, cut it back. Keep up this cutting back process until you have prepared as many branches as you think are needed. Persistency and patience will oblige the plant to do as you would like to have it do.—Ladies' Home Journal.

COL. BERRET DEAD.

Former Mayor of Washington, D. C., Died at the Age of 86—Friend of Many Public Men.

Washington, April 15.—Colonel James B. Berret, former mayor of Washington and one of its best known citizens, died here, aged 86 years. He was a native of Baltimore and had been twice a member of the Maryland legislature, and in 1858 and in 1860 was elected mayor of Washington, D. C., as a Democrat. Colonel Berret had the friendship and esteem of many public men, both Democrats and Republicans. He was chairman of the inaugural committee when President Cleveland was inaugurated the second time, and during both the Cleveland administrations was always a welcome caller at the white house. On Aug. 26, 1861, Colonel Berret, by order of Secretary Seward, was arrested as a southern sympathizer, the charge against him being that he had written "certain letters containing treasonable utterances against the United States government." He was sent to Fort Lafayette, in New York harbor, and held there for two weeks as a military prisoner. When President Lincoln heard of the arrest he ordered Colonel Berret's discharge.

The Plucky Rector.

Dr. W. S. Rainsford had started a mission school in the back rooms of a saloon on Avenue A and at one of the first sessions found a big ruffian in possession, greatly to the discomfort of the teacher. Told to go out, the fellow informed Dr. Rainsford with an oath that he would see him further first. The doctor talked peaceably enough to the blackguard, hoping to avoid a disturbance, but when he swore at him again gave him his own medicine in a blow that felled him like an ox. The fellow arose, dazed and groping, to find the doctor standing over him, ready to have it out.

"Have you got enough?" he asked. The man cried quits and went his way. The Sunday school session proceeded.

A week later there was another fight. The rector started in to clear the room, persuasion having failed, and found the burly ruffian of the previous encounter at his elbow.

"I thought I was in for it," he said, telling of it, "and that they had come to clean me out. I made sure my back was free and turned upon them. Imagine my surprise when I saw my customer of the week before grab the other by the neck and rush him to the door."

"Here," he said, firing him out, "the rector and I can clean out this saloon! That was the last fight we had."

DELIBERATING ON THE ISSUES

Brotherhood of Operatives

MATTERS STILL IN STATU QUO

Secretary Duffy Replies to the Manufacturers—Has Tried to Keep Mat-
terests—A Complete Review.

Brotherhood of Operative Potters convened at Brotherhood headquarters at 10:30 this morning.

Those present were President
Hughes, Secretary Duffy and Elmer Stevenson, of this city, and J. J. Jackson, second vice president, Wheeling;
John Gould, East Palestine; Harry
Broughan, Trenton. F. H. Hutchins,
of Trenton, is the only member absent, and he is detained at home by illness.

There is nothing new in the situation at present, as the board has not
yet had time to go over the ground.
However, they are expected to have
formed some definite plan of action
by this evening.

Although the interested parties are saying nothing, there is a feeling of
confidence today that an adjustment
will be reached and a strike averted.

Secretary T. J. Duffy, of the Brotherhood of Operative Potters, today gave
ment:

"In last Saturday's issue of your paper, W. E. Wells, secretary of the Western Manufacturing Potters' association, gives 'an authorized statement'
of their (the manufacturers'), position,
in the belief that the public should be
correctly informed.' Being desirous of helping Mr. Wells to 'correctly inform the public,' of the true state of affairs, we wish to take exception to the statement given by him.

"First, We wish to say that we are opposed to the policy of rushing into
public print with our business, or creating public clamor over every little
grievance that may arise. In the present matter we endeavored to keep matters as quiet as possible, so as not to cause any unnecessary alarm in business circles; but the manufacturers
have kindly furnished the press with
all matter they desired, pertaining to
the difficulty. Our only purpose in keeping matters quiet is consideration
for the business interests of the city;
but if we undertake an appeal to public sentiment it will, perhaps, be turned
in a different direction than that which the manufacturers would have
it go.

"But we do not wish to take advantage of public sentiment; all we wish
is to have just grievances settled by
fair methods, not according to prejudice or sympathy. We made no appeals for sympathy. Neither do we,
when a petty grievance arises, always
put out the threat: 'If it's not settled
in three days, we will shut down every
pottery in the city.'

"Now Mr. Wells does not touch upon the questions in dispute. He only endeavors to show that we 'forfeited the right to treat with the National association' and that we 'erred in addressing grievances to the U. S. Potters' association.'

"According to Mr. Wells' letter of July 24, 1900, which was a reply to our communication of July 20, 1900, addressed to the U. S. Potters' association, and in which we presented the
matters at issue, the Western association took it upon themselves to act
upon our communication, and directed
their members of the standing committee to deal with us on all propositions
except proposition No. 1, which later
was settled favorable to the manufacturers. At a later date, when we pre-
committee, the manufacturers on that
committee informed us that they could
of a 'general character' and should be presented to the U. S. Potters' association. So, acting upon the suggestion of the manufacturers we submitted the

questions to the U. S. Potters' association at their meeting at Pittsburg in December, 1900, and they informed us
that they would not give the matters
any consideration.

"Since that time we have communicated with Mr. J. N. Taylor, chairman of the U. S. Potters' association, but were unable to get the desired conference. Acting upon the suggestion in
Mr. Taylor's reply, we again called the attention of the standing committee
to these matters, but the manufacturers of that committee stated that they had no authority to deal with us on
the questions.

"It was not until last Friday, April 12, that we found out that any organization of the manufacturers would extend to us the courtesy of a conference. With us it has not been so much a question as to what 'body' we
should deal with, as it was to find any
'body' to deal with us.

"Again Mr. Wells says 'claims and demands since filed with the arbitration committee have been innumerable
' * * * and all from the men; manufacturers never having filed a single
demand.' Of course not. Why should
the manufacturers file any demands,
when everything pertaining thereto
works to their advantage? For instance, if a firm gets out a new article
and offers the man four cents per dozen for making said article, and the
only pay him four cents pending settlement by the standing committee.
firm is going to file a demand? No.
The man who has the grievance must file the claim or suffer an injustice by
not doing so.

"Fully one-half of the claims presented to the standing committee were brought there by operatives whose employers refused to deal with them at all, ordering their employees to take their grievance to the standing committee, and during the mean time the
man must work at the manufacturers'
price. Why, one-half of the work of the standing committee could have been avoided, had the manufacturers
in some potteries even consented to consider the claims of their employees.
But the men were always told that if they wanted any consideration for
their claims they must go to the standing committee, and then, as if to show
the fairness of the manufacturers, we are told that 'they never filed a
claim.'

"Mr. Wells also informs us that their members of the committee have
'thrown up their hands in despair,' and
have just resigned as a body.' Well, they are not to be blamed for resigning, for some of the arguments put forth in the standing committee would
disgust any man possessing any reason
at all, and the most ridiculous of these
arguments came from manufacturers.
It is safe to say that some of the manufacturers who served on the standing committee were not any more disgusted with the operatives than they were
with some of the manufacturers.

"But all of Mr. Wells' talk about the arbitration committee has no direct bearing on the present difficulty.
Still, if the manufacturers wish to go
before the public with all that happened in the standing committee, nothing will be more pleasing to us, nor
would anything be more beneficial to
enter into newspaper controversy, nor
do we intend to do so, only as a matter of self-defense, as in the present instance.

the claims of the men just, and that is
why we insist upon having a conference with the manufacturers to mutually agree upon them, and give the
manufacturers an opportunity to point
out what they considered unjust
among our claims, and then perhaps
we could 'reason together.'

"But we considered our claims worthy of more recognition than to be
further consideration.'

William Urp Assaulted And Terribly Beaten on Walnut Street
Saturday Night.

William Urp, a ware grinder at the Knowles pottery, was assaulted on Walnut street Saturday night, and
was so badly used up that he had to
be assisted to the office of a physician.
headquarters.

SIX MEN CAUGHT IN POLICE NET

Frank Beatty, Just Out of the Works, Gets In Trouble
and Is Fined.

TIM STRAIN WILL GO TO CANTON

Fined $50—Other Offenders Kept
Saturday Night And Sunday.

The police department was kept
busy Saturday night and Sunday morning. When their work was finished up early Sunday morning the
list showed that six victims had fallen
into the hands of the police.

Frank Beatty has only recently arrived from the works, and on Saturday night, with a few congenial spirits, started to make up for lost time.
Beatty invariably gets quarrelsome
when he gets a few drinks under his belt, and when he met Tim Strain on Franklin street he had no trouble in being accommodated with a fight. Officer Mahoney happened along and arrested both. When Strain faced the
sented with one of his honor's Wheeling stogies. Tim was at a loss to un-
an indication that he had made a hit
with the authorities. Accordingly,
when the charge was read he had no
hesitation in pleading guilty to being disorderly and fighting. The mayor fined him $50 and costs. Officer Stafford took him to the workhouse
this morning, where he will remain
during the summer.

Beatty succeeded in raising the amount of his fine, $9.60 and he gained his liberty on Sunday morning.

Ed Graham was captured by Fire-
man Bettridge on Kossuth street Saturday night and taken to jail in the patrol. He was drunk and those in charge of the patrol were compelled
to almost carry him to the wagon.

Patrolman Woods found Ernest
Cline back of the opera house Saturday night, where he had picked out a nice quiet place to take a nap. He was taken to jail in the patrol and
given a bunk there where there was less chance of his being annoyed. He had $3.25 and when heard Sunday
morning Mayor Davidson relieved him
of $6.60 of the amount, and he still had sufficient to buy a few bowls, provided he was judicious about it.

Annie Caplis became tired of East Liverpool and concluded to go to Chicago Saturday evening. She went to the C. & P. station and made inquiry
of Assistant Ticket Agent Ryan concerning the fare and time of trains.
Miss Caplis was considerably the
worse for liquor and returned later
to ask a few more questions.

Not long afterward the station was
closed and those in charge left the place. The woman made her appear-
she found no one at the station became angry and broke a large plate glass window. Officers Davidson and Aufderheide arrested her and she
spent the night in jail.

The friends of the woman raised
the amount of her fine, $6.60, and she was released Sunday evening. She had enough money to return to her home in Chicago and she started Sunday night.

H. R. Grimes was using profanity at Jack Eckert's place on Market street
Saturday night and the proprietor
made a charge against him. Grimes protested his innocence and after putting up security for his appearance,
the hearing was set for Monday.

It is thought Grimes changed his mind when he got sober and concluded to allow the matter to rest where
it was.

William Spink was arrested by Officer Dawson today on Third street.
Spink was very drunk. He will be

SUED FOR $475.

for Fruit—Matters
Before Court.

Lisbon, April 15.—(Special.)—John Koehler, who conducts a wholesale
produce commission business in Pittsburg, filed suit here today against J.
W. Phillips, of East Palestine. It is claimed that the defendant owes a bill
of $475 for baskets of fruit.

against the East Liverpool Ice & Coal company, which was set for a hearing
in court, has been continued until Thursday morning, counsel being unable to attend tomorrow.

Bond in the sum of $300 was filed
in common pleas court today, removing the case of D. E. Mather against
W. H. Booth to the circuit court. The case was tried in common pleas during
this term, when the petition was dismissed and the defendant given judgment for costs.

Sheriff Noragon will not take Jesse McGregor to Columbus until tomorrow morning.

A LISBON CHILD UPSETS HOT

Some of the Burning Liquid Got Down Its Throat,
Killing It.

Lisbon, April 15.—(Special.)—A one-year-old child of Samuel Hoover, of this city, was frightfully burned about
the head on Saturday afternoon by overturning a large bowl of hot soup.
Several hours later they succeeded in putting the child to sleep, and it never
wakened.

A quantity of the hot liquid passed

BOERS' EXPLOITS.

500 BRITISH REPORTED.

The News, As Yet Unconfirmed, Ex-
cites Much Apprehension
in London.

London, April 15.—(Special.)—
There is consternation and alarm in government circles, as well as among
the British public, over a report from Pretoria today that the Boers have captured General French and 500 British.

The report is not confirmed by official advices, but it has caused no end of alarm nevertheless.

TRUNKFUL OF CLOTHES

Shipped By Mrs. Smith to East Liverpool.

Pittsburg, April 15.—The vast quantity of stolen stuff which the police
captured at the time of the arrests
of the burglar gang which murdered Kahney, the Mt. Washington grocer,
and Detective P. E. Fitzpatrick, will be open today for the inspection of the public and the identification of property.

Mrs. May Smith, the boarding house keeper at 32 Fulton street, where the
detective was killed, is said to have
admitted that she shipped a trunkful
of clothes from her house to East Liverpool, O., for Mrs. Wright. The
latter had some dress goods she wanted made up and Mrs. Smith said she advised her to send them to an Ohio dressmaker she knew for the purpose of getting the work done cheaper
than she could here.

Sueptintendent O'Mara has sent to several cities in the hope of being able
to trace goods sent away by the Wrights. He has received no responses.

The police authorities of this city
have received no request to detain
any shipment from Mrs. Smith. At both the express office and the C. & P. freight station it was denied that
any goods shipped by her had been received.

D. A. Devine and Wm. E. Morrow
Compelled to Fork Over
Large Sums.

SCREEN ORDINANCE VIOLATED

It Was the Second Offense And the
Thought All Saloonmen Will Observe the Law Hereafter.

A hearing was had Saturday afternoon in the case against D. A. Devine
for violating the screen ordinance.

Devine was among the six saloon-
ists against whom charges were made
on Thursday night, and the balance of the cases were dismissed owing
to there having been a misunderstanding.
In the case of Devine it was different. He has a screen over the window at his place on Second street,
and according to the report of the
officers making the complaint, it was almost impossible to obtain a view of the interior while the glass was in position.

A number of witnesses were examined, and at the conclusion of the testimony Mayor Davidson fined the saloon man $100 and costs, it being his second offense. The screen has been removed.

Officer Stafford arrested William Morrow Saturday night for violating
the screen ordinance. He was notified
to appear this morning for a hearing.

Morrow was charged with keeping
his screen doors closed after the hour specified in the ordinance. When the authorities appeared at city hall this
morning they found another charge against Morrow awaiting action. The time for hearing was then changed
to 3 o'clock this afternoon, at which time he was fined $50 and costs on
the first charge and $100 and costs
on the second, making about $175 in
all.

It is thought that this will end the
matter of violations of the new ordinance until the higher court has a chance to rule on the subject.

With the three men who were first
arraigned almost $500 has been paid
out in fines for violating the provisions of the new ordinance, and it is now thought that all will observe the
law.

FOUND STOLEN STUFF.

William Farmer Locates Junk Which
Was Taken By Boy
Thieves.

Last week several boys stole a quantity of junk from William Farmer in Chester and the stuff was stored in
an old coal house near the river.

Farmer identified his property this
morning and immediately took steps
at the mayor's office, but was referred
to a justice. Later he was advised that, if he was positive about the ownership of the junk, he could avoid legal proceedings by taking it himself.

HOD CARRIERS' PROPOSAL.

It Is Said They Are Now Ready to
a Day.

The hod carriers' union held a meeting Saturday evening in their hall. A committee was appointed to confer
with the contractors looking to a compromise of the questions at issue. The committee is meeting with the bosses this afternoon and will report back to
the organization tonight.

It is said the committee is empowered to make a proposition providing for a uniform price of $2.25 per day.

Smith-Gray.

John C. Gray and Miss Zada Smith, both of this city, were married by Father Smythe at St. Aloysius' church
this morning at 8:30. They left on the noon train for a week's visit with Mr.
Gray's parents at East Palestine, after
which they will reside here.

A gas explosion at the home of William Wheatley wrecked the stove and badly burned Miss Minnie Borden's arm yesterday morning.

Miss Borden, who lives with the Wheatley family, did not understand how to light the gas. She turned it on full force and then got a piece of paper, which she lighted and touched to the stove. The result was that the top of the stove and the pipe were blown off and Miss Borden's face and hair singed and her arm badly burned.

Alex Chaffin returned from Sattlettsburg, Ky., Saturday evening. He brought with him a boatload of what he calls skilled workmen. This will increase the population of Chaffinville about 25 per cent. J. J. Weisen says that if the population of this village increases at this rate for the next two years, Alex will doubtless get his much coveted seat in council at the next election.

No Trouble Occurred.

When the hod carriers went on strike work on the new addition to the Laughlin plant was suspended. The Italians formerly engaged at grading streets on the Smith addition were employed by the contractors to wheel brick, and were all on hand ready to begin this morning. It was thought that the hod carriers' union would interfere, but the rainy weather made it impossible to resume work this morning.

Firemen's Quick Run.

The East End fire department made a quick run to Ralston's crossing Saturday. Some of the boys were cleaning out a dog kennel adjoining Rigby's residence, and in some way set fire to the straw. An alarm was sent to the central station, but they called the East End department. The blaze was extinguished without any damage and no service of the department was required except an inspection.

Only the Dog Suffered.

Some of the employees at the National plant rid the place of a bothersome dog by tying a tin can to its tail and starting it down the track. Fortunately it did not run on any street and no teams were scared or runaways caused, but such things often result from this kind of fun.

Kaylor Meetings Begin Tonight.

A series of special meetings in charge of Evangelist A. H. Kaylor will begin at the Second U. P. church tonight. Special music will be provided, and as Mr. Kaylor's reputation as an orator has preceded him the attendance will doubtless be very large.

ANGRY MAN SHOT WIFE.

Nearly Killed Boy, Who Had Saved the Woman, and Then Took His Own Life.

New York, April 15.—Mrs. Kate Pitt, who was shot late Saturday night by her husband, Harry Pitt, is lying at her home very dangerously wounded. One of the bullets plowed a deep furrow under her right eye and another struck her back of the right ear. Thomas Welsh, a boy, who did chores about the Pitt home and who was also shot by the man, is in a hospital with a bullet in his abdomen, another in the left side and a third in the shoulder. The surgeons say that Mrs. Pitt may recover, but there is very little hope for the boy.

Pitt made a living by selling sand and stone to contractors and also carried on a beer bottling business in his own house, his wife attending to this part of it. He was of a quarrelsome disposition, and when he came home about midnight tried to get possession of a jug of whisky which his wife had hidden in the stove. Her efforts to keep him from the whisky so enraged him that he tried to brain her with a poker, but was prevented by the Welsh boy. This only added to his fury, and drawing his revolver he shot his wife and the boy, and then going into the next room killed himself.

Interest in animals is always keen among both young and old. The Pittsburgh Dispatch realizing this has made arrangements whereby, commencing next Sunday, April 21, and each Sunday thereafter, it will give free to its readers not only some representative animal in nature's kingdom, but a cage in which to put him. The animals are reproductions of the most popular favorites in the celebrated Highland Park Zoo in Pittsburgh, and with them is given such scientific information as will prove of great educational value.

Not every child can visit the zoo, so the Pittsburgh Dispatch takes this way of making it possible for every child to have his own zoo. Order the Sunday Dispatch from your dealer at once, so as to insure your getting the complete series, as the edition is limited. The series will make an instructive and entertaining collection when finished.

Pittsburg, April 15.—The murder of Grocer Thomas D. Kahney, of Mt. Washington, will be fastened upon the gang of burglars who killed Detective Patrick Fitzgerald. All three of the men and at least one of the women, it is thought, will be hanged. The Pittsburgh police bureau is expectant, it might almost be said, sanguine, of these two results. Every effort is being directed toward their accomplishment. Almost every hour the labors of the detectives are rewarded with the discovery of some fact of importance in the web which they are weaving about the doomed gang.

Last night it was established that the three men were on Mt. Washington together on the night of the murder of Mr. Kahney and in the vicinity of his store. One witness was obtained who gave a positive identification of one of the men, and there are others who are expected to furnish valuable testimony against the others. Since Friday the detective bureau has kept men on Mt. Washington searching for traces of the men in the vicinity of the murdered grocer's home and store. Last night Detective Edward Barry brought to Central station Albert Messenger, of 45 Prospect street, a youth of about 16 years of age. He furnished a positive identification of Robert D. Wilcox as a man he had seen within a square and a half of Kahney's place about 9 o'clock Thursday night. The murder was committed in the early hours of Friday morning. The young man also partially identified John D. Wright as one of two men he had seen with Wilcox, and was taken to Mercy hospital, where he gave the same sort of identification of Edward Wright. That is, he said, these two men had the same general appearance as those he had seen.

He was positive of his identification of Wilcox, however, and the detectives believe this identification and the association of the three men, which will be proved, will go far toward establishing the connection of the men in their hands with the killing of Kahney.

Detective Superintendent Roger O'Mara left the public safety building about 9:15 o'clock last night, after being hastily summoned there on an urgent message from County Detective Robert G. Robinson. Robinson had had a long interview with the man who calls himself Robert D. Wilcox, and got him to consent to reveal his true identity to Superintendent O'Mara. The superintendent said:

"I am more than satisfied with the situation as it now stands. I am as certain as that I am here that we will convict the crowd of everything, including the Mt. Washington murder. Tonight I talked with Wilcox. He told me his true name and the address of his father and mother and other relatives. I will not give this out until I have communicated with that end. There is a whole lot that we know against these people, but it would be inadvisable to give it out at present."

The detectives are now satisfied that the true name of the two men who previously went under the alias of Wright is Biddle. Detective John Roach says that John Wright under pressure was made to admit that his name was Biddle, and that he has two brothers of the same name in this city.

ABUSE OF THE MAILS

MAY ADOPT REFORM RULE

Circular Issued to About 400 Publishers of Newspapers Asking For Their Opinions—Premium Scheme Asserted to Be a Great Method of Abuse.

Washington, April 15.—Having repeatedly failed to secure remedial legislation from congress to prevent abuses of the privileges of second-class mail matter, the postoffice department officials had under consideration the question of adoption of a proposed rule by authority of the postmaster general to bring about the desired reforms. With this object in view, Mr. Edwin C. Madden, third assistant postmaster general, addressed a long circular letter to about 400 publishers of newspapers and periodicals, setting forth the objects sought to be accomplished by the proposed rule, and asking the following questions:

In the judgment of those addressed, will a departmental rule be regarded as injurious to legitimate newspapers and periodicals, which will stop absolutely all premium inducements, direct or indirect, and of whatever character, for subscriptions? In other words, after a publisher has fixed a price on his publication, any bonus or premium given to the subscriber, or any combination with another thing except a second-class publication, shall vitiate that subscription in its relation to the second-class rate of postage.

Mr. Madden added: "It is believed that such a rule as that proposed will be of great direct benefit to legitimate journalism, and that in a very large measure it will check this draft upon the public treasury for private advantage, with no compensating public benefit, through the elimination of an immense number of publications which are wholly sustained in their second-class status by patronage induced by some extraneous thing in conflict with the spirit of the law. Such a consummation has much of promise in the direction of better postal facilities and cheaper rates for other classes of mail matter."

The circular said the loss of revenue to the government from the abuses of the privileges of second-class matter is enormous, being estimated conservatively to be between $15,000,000 and $25,000,000 a year.

Regulations however, faithfully administered, are inadequate to accomplish material reform, and the most prolific means by which the law is circumvented remains undisturbed by regulation.

Further along the circular asserted in part that circulations running into the thousands have been built up by this premium process, for publications which, upon actual merit, could command no public patronage whatever. Such "subscriptions," except in an occasional instance where some actually meritorious publication employs the plan, represent in not literal sense a public interest in the literature, or in the news, to which it is claimed such publications are devoted.

MAIN BUILDING BURNED.

Boston, April 15.—The main building of the extensive Blower works of the B. F. Sturtevant company, in the Jamaica Plain district, was burned, causing a loss of $350,000, fully insured. The concern manufactured various kinds of machinery and electrical goods, as well as blowers. All patterns and plans were destroyed. The company had recently added $75,000 worth of tools and machinery and had a large amount of electrical work ready for shipment. It also had a large number of engines and blowers for the government for use on battleships and cruisers in course of construction, all of which were destroyed. Superintendent Chamberlain states that the business will be carried on without much delay.

A PROBABLE MURDER.

Body With Clothes Partly Burned Found Near Gibson, Pa.

Connellsville, Pa., April 15.—Workmen on a Baltimore and Ohio gravel train found the body of a man lying 20 feet from the track near Gibson, his clothes burned off to the knees. There were no marks of a fire near at hand, where he could have been burned, no signs of a struggle, or indications that the body had been dragged to its place.

It is supposed that the man was murdered either on a train or elsewhere, his clothes fired, and the body then cast from the car. The body was brought to Morris & Co.'s morgue, but is unidentified. The man was about 30 years old, heavy set, and had a brown beard and black hair. He wore black trousers. Both legs were broken below the knees.

A RUN OF 227 NIGHTS.

PHENOMENAL SUCCESS OF THE VILLAGE POSTMASTER.

The Play Will be Seen at the Grand Wednesday Evening—Archie Boyd in Title Role.

"The Village Postmaster," with Archie Boyd in the title role, comes to the Grand in East Liverpool, on Wednesday evening, April 17, after a long and successful run of 227 nights at the Fourteenth street theatre, New York, and comes direct from its third big engagement there, and is quite likely to please the theatre-going people during its stay here. The comments of some of New York's leading papers may prove of interest:

"New York has never seen a better drama of rural life than 'The Village Postmaster.' The play throughout carries with it a smell of new mown hay, apple blossoms and pure country air. It will do a person good to witness it."—New York Herald.

"It's a better play than the 'Old Homestead,' because it is well balanced and true to life."—N. Y. Mail and Express.

"It will make a fortune for its authors."—New York Times.

"The Village Postmaster" is like a vacation in the country. The play will be enjoyed by anyone who loves the country."—Brooklyn Eagle.

"Another 'Old Homestead.' No play of the same kind has been presented with such care, or with more scrupulous fidelity to the period shown. 'The Village Postmaster' is admirably played by every one concerned."—New York World. Boston and Providence notices.

The story told by the drama is an unconventional one of love and disappointment, coming out all right as all love stories do. It's also unconventional in its setting, which is in a New Hampshire village in 1852, during the presidency of Franklin Pierce. Scenery and costumes are in keeping with the time, the former being elaborate in detail and pleasing to the eye, as well as being most realistic. A brief resume of the story of the play will no doubt be interesting. The first scene is in the village store and postoffice with the usual loungers and gossipers. The scene changes to the village green on training day, a day familiar to the elder generation as the annual holiday when every able bodied citizen was compelled to appear and go through the manual of arms. This was always observed as a general holiday and was observed with great jollification. The act ends with a rainstorm of real water which breaks up the festivities.

The second act shows the interior of the Baptist minister's house where an old fashioned donation party is in progress. The third act shows the farm yard with a big old fashioned threshing machine in operation; the last act, the interior of a country church, where preparations are being made for the wedding of the postmaster's daughter. All these are elaborately pictured and constitute no small part of the entertainment.

Mr. Boyd, who heads the company this season, is a worthy character actor of the old school. His long experience with Denman Thompson's part, Joshua Whitcomb, in the "Old Homestead" and Uncle Nat in "Shore Acres" gives him special fitness for the somewhat similar part of Seth Huggins, the postmaster, which he plays clearly and well. He will be supported by the complete New York cast, including Miss Angela Russell, a young actress of unusual ability, whose excellent impersonation of Miranda, the postmaster's daughter, has been very highly commended. The production will be exactly the same as when the play was seen at the Fourteenth street theatre, New York. Tickets can be exchanged at box office at 8 o'clock tonight. Tickets for exchange can be purchased at Will Reed's drug store.

A BIG COAL DEAL.

Wheeling, W. Va., April 15.—The Empire Coal Mining company deal, it was expected, will be closed up today, when President W. P. DeArmit, Mr. J. F. Newman and other directors, it was expected, will place on record at St. Clairsville a blanket mortgage on the 30,000 acres of coal and five going mines, in security of the $2,000,000 cash furnished on the bonds of the company by the Fidelity Title and Trust company, of Pittsburgh. This mortgage covers over 400 pieces of coal and makes up a huge volume of 470 typewritten pages, or 117,500 words. Several lawyers and stenographers have been engaged in compiling this big legal document for several days. One thousand dollars in stamps are required, the recording fee will be several hundred dollars, and altogether the cost of getting the mortgage on record will foot up $7,500.

The distribution of the money on this deal, it was expected, will be made today. Checks to the amount of $1,250,000 will be given three banks by the Empire company, and the banks in turn will make the payments to the property owners.

L. F. Newman, of Springfield, Mass., the company's financial man, when asked last evening for an expression as to the attachment sworn out against him and C. F. Birdseye at Springfield and at Pittsburgh by Broker George G. Dwyer, of New York, replied that it was merely a species of blackmail, and he intimated that upon his return to Springfield he would institute suits for heavy damages. His explanation is that Dwyer was employed by Birdseye, a New York attorney, on work connected with the old Empire company, which sold out to the Newman syndicate, and that whatever is due Dwyer is owed by Birdseye, not by Newman. DeArmit, Schwab or other Pittsburghers interested in the new Empire Coal Mining company.

LIKE BUBONIC PLAGUE.

Singular Disease Affecting an Alliance Family.

Alliance, April 15.—A day or two since an Alliance lumberman went to the woods to measure up some lumber preparatory to cutting, and after a busy day in the woods he came home ill, suffering with what appeared to Dr. J. A. Roach, the attending physician, to be grip. However, the next morning when the man arose his head was drawn around to one side, and a large lump had formed on the side of his neck.

The swelling was extremely painful and the physician could not account for it. Later on the entire family of eight people were afflicted in apparently the same manner. The physician admitted that the disease was like the bubonic plague.

A Soldier's Funeral.

Alliance, April 15.—The funeral of Bascom Taylor Johnston, of Company K, Twenty-second United States cavalry, who died in the Philippines, occurred here today, and was conducted with military honors. Johnston was long employed as a Pennsylvania brakeman and fireman.

HUNTING FOR THE POLES.

Several expeditions are now on their way to the Antarctic region to unravel its secrets as far as possible, and to discover the south pole if they can. The southern region is practically an unknown one, while scores of scientists have explored the opposite end of the earth. The chances, therefore, for adding to the sum of human knowledge by an investigation of the less known field are almost limitless, and since the world abounds in restless spirits, eager to do something never done before the wonder is that the Antarctic zone has been neglected so long. Men have pushed their way poleward until the limit has almost been reached in the north.

But is it worth while? The intrepid Peary, for instance, is expending his energies and risking his life in work which, even if successful, can yield but small returns. He is a man of fine talents and, it strikes us, could be vastly more useful to the world in some other field. Counting the suffering and sacrifice, the perils which must be encountered, it would appear that we could better dispense with further knowledge of a land which must forever remain a dreary, useless waste, than that men whose lives are of value to the world should wear themselves out in an effort to penetrate the frozen region.

CRIMINALS WITH A PULL.

The startling revelation that Pittsburg, whose officers boast of having the best governed city in America, has been harboring for months a band of desperate, hardened criminals, who hesitated not an instant to add two murders to their other misdeeds when exposure became imminent, has set the people to talking and thinking. The superintendent of police in that city, in trying to account for the crime, makes a statement that should shame the authorities. He complains that too many criminals enjoy facilities for escaping the penalties of their crimes. The beginner has friends and relatives who plead his case and mitigate the punishment, while the hardened offender frequently has a "pull," either with the police or the police magistrate and escapes lightly or altogether. That there is truth in these admissions, as regards not only Pittsburg but other large cities, cannot be denied, and the fact is disgraceful to the people who tolerate it. Not to punish crime is to invite it.

HARMING THE CITY.

The harm which sensation-mongers can do a town was pointed out fairly and fully in these columns on Friday. It is bad enough when they confine their efforts to the home field, but that is not enough for them. They must go outside and damage the city's interests in the large cities. One of these mischief-makers, who is probably of the same crowd as the authors of the fake lynching, which he did his best to make real, has a "special" in the Cincinnati Enquirer of Sunday, making dire predictions of a "long, stubborn strike," affecting 14,000 pottery workers. That will affect the town and its credit away from home in the way this penny-a-liner desires; but people with the city's interests at heart have a right to protest. It is no wonder East Liverpool is losing patience with such newspaper writers as seem determined to work only for the city's harm.

The United States circuit court at New Orleans has decided that mules are not munitions of war, however damaging they may be to the enemy or to those who use them. The Boers applied for an injunction to prevent their shipment to the British in Africa—a proceeding that seems unaccountably strange, since the mules which the British owned are credited with having won at least one conspicuous victory for the Boer side.

Twelve thousand Spaniards went from Spain to Cuba to remain last year. Had the island remained under Spanish rule the immigration would have been in the other direction.

A Vermont bank cashier has got away with $90,000, or $30,000 more than the bank's capital. He certainly looked after business, but who looked after him?

And now they are saying that the Goer general, DeWet, is crazy. At all events, there is a good deal of method in his madness.

A Large Audience to Hear the Evangelist—Great Growth of Membership.

There was a good crowd out at the Y. M. C. A. hall yesterday afternoon to hear Evangelist Kaylor, who spoke on "The Mask of Human Deceit," taking the story of I. Kings 14, as a text. At the close several men rose as desiring to lead a better life. Three confessed Christ at an after meeting.

The boys' meeting at 2:30 had but a small attendance. Next Sunday at the same time J. H. McCoy will address boys on "The Effects of Cigarette Smoking," using illustrative charts. Mothers are urged to send their boys to hear Mr. McCoy.

Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. the secretary will conduct the Bible class. He sends a cordial invitation to men, especially young converts, to come and study God's word.

Rev. J. H. Platts, of Mingo Junction, former secretary of the Y. M. C. A. here, visited the rooms Saturday night, and the Sunday meeting and was greeted by a host of friends.

There have been 65 membership fees paid in during the past month. If the boys will hustle they ought to treble this by May 15.

NEARLY 50 NEW MEMBERS.

Added to the U. P. Church Since the Special Meetings Began.

Evangelist A. H. Kaylor concluded his labors at the First U. P. church yesterday, and this evening resumes them at the Second church in the East End. He preached impressive sermons both morning and evening yesterday to large congregations. A number of new members were received and baptized at the morning service yesterday.

During the four weeks which the evangelist has labored at the First church, nearly 50 new members have been added to the church and interest in all lines of church work has been greatly stimulated.

The Coming Attraction.

Much interest is felt in the play, "The Village Postmaster," with the quaint pictures it furnishes of New England rural life and the familiar characters it portrays. One is interested in the odd features of training day, no less than in the evening wedding in the village church, and fascination grows as the action of the play progresses. Archie Boyd appears in the title role, and those who recall this brilliant actor's impersonation of Joshua Whitcomb in "The Old Homestead" and Uncle Nat in "Shore Acres," will need no further assurance of a very entertaining performance at the Grand next Wednesday evening.

The Boy Aboard Ship.

Mr. Frank T. Bullen, who was once a ship boy himself, makes in his book, "The Men of the Merchants' Service," these mournful statements concerning the sea life of young Jacky:

"Within the memory of middle aged men a boy on board a ship was the butt, the vicarious sacrifice to all the accumulated ill temper of the ship. Today tales are told of the treatment of boys in 'Geordie' colliers that are enough to make the flesh creep to hear. In those days it was the privilege of every man on board to ill treat the boy, and if, as very often happened, the poor little wretch died under it—well, what of it?—it was only a boy.

"And the peculiar part of it all was that the brutes who did these evil deeds prided themselves that their actions were right and proper. There was only one way of training a boy—with a rope's end if it were handy; if not, a fist or a boot would do, but he must be beaten.

"One man whom I shall always remember, as smart a seaman as ever trod a ship's deck, beat me until there was not a square inch of my small body unbruised. Scarcely a watch passed that I did not receive some token of his interest in my welfare, and on two occasions he kicked me with such violence that with all the will in the world to obey his orders I was perfectly helpless. My only wonder is that he did not kill me.

"Yet when I left the ship he bade me quite an affectionate farewell, bidding me remember how hard he had labored for my benefit, that every blow he had given me was solely aimed at making me more useful and fitting me for my position."

Av Indulgent Father.

"Her father is a Chicago packer, isn't he?"

SECRET SOCIETIES.

Once a week or oftener the News Review will publish a department of lodge news. Officers and members of the various orders are invited to contribute. The name and address of the writer must accompany every communication.

The annual session of the great camp, K. O. T. M., and the great hive, L. O. T. M., will be held in Akron Tuesday and Wednesday, May 28 and 29. It is expected that not less than 3,000 Maccabees will be present during the sessions of the two bodies. Already requests for rooms are pouring in from delegates and Akron hotels will be taxed. Past Great Commander Dr. L. E. Sisler is now arranging for the entertainment of the delegates. Each body will have 100 delegates, besides the great camp officers and Maccabees from all over northern Ohio who will be present. Columbus, Findlay, Toledo, Cleveland and Sandusky tents have chartered special trains. The first meeting will be a public one in the Grand Opera House. Great camp officers from half a dozen different states will be present. Dr. Sisler will be chairman and Mayor W. B. Doyle will deliver the address of welcome. Great Record Keeper Ed L. Young, of Norwalk, will respond. Supreme Commander D. P. Markey, of Port Huron, Mich.; Supreme Record Keeper George J. Siegle, of the K. O. T. M., and Supreme Lady Commander Mrs. L. H. Hollister, and Supreme Lady Record Keeper Miss Bina West of the L. O. T. M., will deliver addresses, as will Great Commander H. M. Park, of Elyria, and Great Lady Commander Mrs. Emma S. Olds.

Several members of the local lodge of Odd Fellows attended a meeting of Line Island lodge, No. 142, of Smith's Ferry, Saturday night. The occasion was the annual installation of officers, and Grand Deputy Heeler, of the Pennsylvania district, was present to conduct the ceremony. Two applicants were taken into full membership, the second degree was administered to two, while two others were given the initiatory degree. After the installation of the officers who will have charge of the organization for the coming year, a sumptuous banquet was served. Those who attended from this city returned home early Sunday morning.

The Daughters of America, at their meeting Friday evening, took action on nine applications. They will be initiated at the meeting next Friday evening. The committee having in charge the arrangements for the entertainment of the state session which meets in this city at the same time the session of the Jr. O. U. A. M. is to be held, reported progress. They also decided on a very beautiful badge to be worn by the delegates.

The dance held at Rock Springs Friday night by the social committee of the Jr. O. U. A. M., for the benefit of the committee having in charge the arrangements for the entertainment of the state session of the order, to be held in this city in August, was very largely attended. A neat sum was realized.

A Legal Quibble.

"There is a story," the doctor said, "of a man who was sued for debt not long ago. The case went against him, and the court gave judgment for $300. His lawyer told him he would have to pay it, as he was an unmarried man. He hustled out and in a few hours came back with a wife and a plea in due form that he needed his salary for the support of his family. He got off free."

"I don't believe that was constitutional," said the professor after a moment's reflection.

"Why not?"

"Because it was annex post facto."—Chicago Tribune.

What She Wanted to Know.

"My dear child, you really should not eat your pudding so quickly."

"Why not, mamma?"

"Because it is dangerous. I once knew a little boy about your age who was eating pudding so quickly that he died before he had finished it."

"And what did they do with the rest of his pudding, mamma?"—Exchange.

Comparative Longevity.

It has often been remarked that while nothing is so uncertain as the duration of any given human life nothing is more certain than the aggregate of years which may be assigned to a group of 100 persons or more at any particular age. The expectation of life at a given age, to use the actuarial phrase, differs considerably, as might be expected, in different countries, and Englishmen may be surprised to learn that they are not the longest living among the white races.

At the age of 20 an Englishman in average health may expect to live 42 years, and any life office will grant him a policy based on that probability. The American's expectation is for a slightly longer period. On the other hand, a German lad of 20 can count upon little more than 39 years and a half.

It would seem, therefore, that the restlessness attributed to the American temperament does not necessarily conduce to the shortening of life nor the composure of the German to its prolongation. Possibly the better feeding and clothing of Americans in the lower classes of the population are the principal causes of their greater longevity. Their position is, at any rate, maintained in later as well as in earlier years.

The American who has reached 60 may look to complete 14 years more, while the Britisher's expectation is only about 13 years and 10 months and the German's as nearly as possible 12 months less. Both at 20 and at 60 the Frenchman's prospect is a little better than the German's and a little worse than the Englishman's.—London Globe.

Economical Training of Gunners.

The method used in the United States navy for the economical training of the gunners is very interesting. It is a well known fact that the cost of firing one of the large guns used in the navy is very great, amounting sometimes to $1,000 or more. To save this expense a very simple method is employed. In the case of the large guns an ordinary Remington rifle is secured in the breech of the gun and directly in the center of the bore, so that when it is fired its bullet takes the same direction as that of the regular projectile. The large gun is sighted in the usual manner. On account of the lesser velocity of the small bullet the target is placed close to the ship and is made correspondingly small.

The method used for the 6 pounder or other small guns is slightly different, as instead of the small rifle a wooden or dummy cartridge the same size as the regular cartridge is employed. Through the center of this wooden cartridge runs a rifle barrel which is loaded with a .44 caliber cartridge. This latter method has the additional advantage of giving the gun crew practice in loading as well as firing.—Washington Star.

When Corks Float Upright.

A cork which is longer than it is broad, which is the case with all ordinary corks, floats upon its side, so to speak. How can we make it float upon its head?

Place one on end upon a table and around it place six others. Seize them all together and plunge them under water so as to wet them completely. Then remove your hand gently and let them take their own position in the water, when you will find that they will stand upright, as if supporting one another. This is because the water that penetrates the cork will make them cling together.

YOUNG AMERICAN RELEASED.

Fought With Boers—Was Arrested Several Times.

Paris, April 15.—"Among the Boer prisoners who recently arrived in Lisbon from Lourenço Marquez," said a special dispatch from the Portuguese capital, "was a young American, Mr. Randolph Martinsen, who described himself as a son of the president of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad. He was captured by the British, but released as an American on promising not to fight again. Subsequently he was arrested in Lourenço Marquez at the request of the British authorities under suspicion of being a Boer agent."

"Mr. Martinsen, on being brought here, secured his release through the American charge d'affaires, and his father sent him money to pay his passage home. According to his representations he was aide de camp to Colonel John Blake, commander of the Irish brigade."

A dispatch to the London Daily Mail, from Lourenço Marquez, cabled to the Associated Press, March 11, said that Mr. Martinsen, who was said to have resigned a post in the United States army to join the Boer forces, had been shipped for Lisbon on the Portuguese transport Zaire, which carried 103 Boer families, after he had made an ineffectual attempt to obtain consular protection.

Novel and Attractive.

the lower edge reaching to the belt at the back, while in the front it is sloped upward to the bust, where the right front is lengthened into a strap, which fastens over on the left front with a large metal button, from under which comes a knot of black moire ribbon. A prettily shaped collar of stitched cloth piped with black moire borders the bolero and frames the upper part of the vest of white mousseline de soie, ornamented with white silk frogs. The collar band matches the vest, and the belt is of the moire. The long sleeves are stitched at the wrists and adorned with the frogs.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The New Hats.

The spring hats are all flat as pancakes and with but little trimming. Flowers are seen everywhere, and they were never so beautiful. Big roses are the popular thing now, red and pink being the favorite shades, but for later wear there are tiny little roses in clusters, pink chiefly. These are the genuine little "button roses," and they trim these flat hats very sweetly. Follage is immensely popular. The velvet leaves are lovely, of course, but the frosty effects are the latest. They come in shaded reds and browns and purples and greens, real autumnal tints, but ever so pretty even now. These autumn flowers are a relief from the gayer shades of summer, in itself a recommendation for the vogue.

RULER MUST REPLY

Japan Makes Another Demand on the Government of China.

KWANG SUS' RETURN DESIRED

Recently Pointed Out to the Chinese Prince the Necessity of the Em-
Reply Received.

Peking, April 15.—Komours Yutaro,
the Japanese minister, accompanied by General Yamaguchi, the Japanese
commander, recently called upon Prince Ching and notified him that the return of Emperor Kwang Su to Peking was urgently desired. Prince Ching was informed that the emperor's wishes would be respected by

It was pointed out to the Chinese plenipotentiary that the emperor's return was of the highest possible importance as affecting the maintenance of the integrity of the Chinese empire, and that he should come accompanied by every available soldier, by
at least 20,000 men if possible. These troops, it was further contended by
the Japanese minister, must be sent into Manchuria, as the Russians reported great disturbances there, and it was not right that the task of quelling the trouble should be thrown
upon the shoulders of one nation.
Finally Prince Ching was assured
that, if the 20,000 Chinese troops
could not suppress the disorders in Manchuria, other powers would send
an international force to co-operate with China, which all the powers regarded as a friendly power.

this communication, Li Hung Ching
was notified to the same effect, and
told that Emperor Kwang Su must
give an immediate answer.

The conduct of the ministers of the powers over the negotiations with the Chinese plenipotentiaries causes
much adverse comment among the military authorities. Their dilatory tactics have prevented what might have been accomplished about two months ago. Even now the meetings of the ministers are postponed
for the most trivial causes. For instance, the desire of one minister to go on a picnic to the Tombs of the Ming Dynasty prevented the holding
of a meeting for a number of days.
Then M. De Giers and other ministers insisted upon celebrating Easter,
and thus a week was consumed. In a third case an unnecessary visit by
one minister to Tien Tsin held up the negotiations for four days. These
are fair illustrations of what has been almost continuous from the beginning.

THREE PERSONS KILLED.

one injured. The dead are:

Frank Cramer was injured.

the alleged confession of H. C. Henderson to complicity in the abduction
of young Edward Cudahy, last December. Should it become practically certain that Henderson was one of the kidnapers, Mr. Cudahy and his son, it was expected, will leave for
man, it was expected, will attempt to identify Henderson.

HER SONS OBJECTED.

And Returned It.

Beaver, Pa., April 15.—On April 8, 1901, Will C. Burham, of Monaca, and Rachel Brooks, of Shannopin, were granted a license. He gave his age as 35, and her's was marked down at 40 years. Clerk Crowl was surprised last week when he received a letter from Burham written in Salem, O., stating that his marriage was declared
off and the license was returned.

He gave his reason for giving up the idea of marriage that the bride was a widow and had a couple of sons who objected seriously to the union. The objections were made so very pointed
that Burham decided to postpone it.
He has not given up hope entirely,
however.

BALLOT REFORM.

It and Other Subjects May Come Up In the Legislature This

Harrisburg, April 15.—Action on the ballot reform bills, the election of a Democratic state chairman the expected visit of Senator Quay, the Fox
capital bill, amendments to the congressional appropriation bill, the anticipated introduction of the general
appropriation bill and the consequent fixing of a date for final adjournment may come up in the legislature this
week.

The ballot reform subject grows
more interesting as the end of the session approaches. There may yet be something sensational done in the way of an election law. The complete
repeal of the Baker act and the substitution of a law that allows the old
vest pocket ticket is at present more than a probability. Senator Quay is coming here soon to confer with his friends and political enemies on the subject. Mr. Quay is disposed to go to the limit on ballot reform. Many
of his lieutenants are objecting to
the elimination of the circle, but he
further.

The final adjournment bee is buzzing very lively these days. These
are pretty days in Harrisburg. The
air is balmy, buds are bursting and
the grass is growing green. To be kept indoors for six or eight hours
each day is becoming wearisome to
the members of the house. Many of them are farmers and they see work
piling up at home while they play at statesmanship. There is a plan on foot now to get an agreement for final adjournment on May 22. It is thought that by this time all the work
can be completed.

Arthur Kirk, head of the big powder
manufacturing firm of Pittsburg, has
a hobby, and that hobby is roadmak-
ing. For years he has devoted much of his time to the study, and for several sessions he has appeared here
with a bill to provide good highways
for the state. He is here this session.
His proposition is to have the state
erect a highway the entire length of the state. It must be 60 feet in width, and a double track trolley road
is to be built in connection with it.
When the whole thing is completed,
the railway is to be sold to the highest bidder, with the provision that

CROWN PRINCE'S VISIT.

German Youth Was the Guest of Em-

Frederick William of Germany arrived in Vienna, in acceptance of an invitation from Emperor Francis Joseph, who, with the Austrian arch-
dukes, greeted him at the railway station. A large and enthusiastic concourse awaited his arrival. Subsequently the emperor received the
crown prince in private audience and
later returned his visit.

Amid popular demonstrations of the most friendly character, the crown prince drove to the Capuchin

mausoleum, where, on behalf of Emperor William, he deposited wreaths
on the tombs of Empress Elizabeth Crown Prince Rudolph and Archduke
Albrecht.

A state banquet in his honor was given at the Hofburg, attended by the members of the imperial house, the
ministers and members of the diplomatic corps. A reception followed,
and then all attended a gala performance at the opera.

Three Theatrical Men Arrested.

Wolf Hopper and William A. Brady
were arrested in this city last night,
charged with violation of the penal code in connection with the raising
and lowering of curtains for a theatrical performance on Sunday. The men are charged with having produced a burlesque on "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at a vaudeville performance at
the Academy of Music, De Wolf Hopper having played the imitation of Uncle Tom. All three were released

ALL MORAL REFORM

Archbishop Ireland Says It Must Be Based Upon Christian Inspiration.

FINE NEW CHURCH DEDICATED

Toledo, April 15.—Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, Minn., assisted by Bishop Horstmann, of Cleveland; Bishop Foley, of Detroit, and about 200 prominent Catholic clergymen from different parts of the United States, Sunday, dedicated St. Patrick's church, said to be one of the handsomest church buildings in the country. This church will stand as a monument to Father Edward Hannin, who, though 75 years of age, did the architectural work, superintended the entire construction and even staked off the ground. There was no other architect and no other boss on the structure. The building is Gothic in style, but is said to be of a design never before attempted in architecture. The entire building is of blue sandstone, quarried in especially large blocks, which are laid in rock-faced style. The sides abound in graceful abutments, which are 110 feet high and have ornamented pinnacles. The main entrance is especially beautiful. On either side of the doors are three granite columns of soft red color, resting on ornamental bases and crowded with richly carved capitals. The opening is finished with a Gothic arch surmounted by a shapely-pointed pediment, finished off with a Greek cross.

The tower is surrounded by a number of pinnacles varied in size. Higher up on the tower and just at the base of the spire are other shapely-pointed pediments surmounted with pinnacles. From these pediments project four water spouts of scorpion-like form. The windows are historic, in each of the six double windows are two apostles in life size.

In the gallery front and immediately over the center aisle is a painting about five by about ten feet. It represents Mary Magdalene at the feet of Our Saviour, and he gently reprimanding the pharisees for objecting to his receiving and conversing with a sinner.

In conclusion, he said: "Therefore, let us build him Christian temples. Let us invite men into the sanctuaries. Let us carry heaven's inspiration into mart and workshop and foundry. We must have forges, and factories, and industries, but these have no moral health of themselves. Colleges, schools, libraries will help us to know, but this is not all. Potent armies and navies will win us victories on bloody fields, but these will not give us moral health and probity. Plans for moral reform must fail, if based on material things. They must always fall if not based on Jesus.

"Let us today, in this fair city of Toledo, dedicate this temple to Christ. What you who have toiled and striven and done for this edifice, you have done for Christ, and his cause. As you look from the sanctuary to the portal, your faith in Jesus Christ and his cause takes on new life in you."

Then turning, Archbishop Ireland pronounced upon Father Hannin commendation that was masterly, tender, delicate and beautiful.

NEW CROATION CHURCH.

Johnstown, Pa., April 15.—The dedication of St. Rockus Catholic church, in this city, occurred Sunday. The exercises lasted most of the day, beginning with a parade that preceded the services about 10 o'clock. The church has no pastor at present and Rev. John N. Bausch, pastor of St. Mary's German Catholic church, corner of Broad street and Third avenue, was designated by Bishop Phelan, of Pittsburgh, to conduct the services at 10 o'clock. Rev. Father Bekowar, of the Croation church, in Allegheny, assisted Father Bausch.

The services were in Croation and were impressive. The parade, which occurred before the dedication of the church, was a big affair. There were several bands and several hundred men in line, many of them mounted and all costumed in gorgeous uniforms. The Croation societies were represented.

About 2 o'clock in the afternoon a big banquet was given at the Croation hall and another parade followed this. At 3 o'clock there were more services at the church and in the evening another ceremony. Visitors were present from Allegheny, South Fork, Wilmore and other places.

House Gowns.

All the newest designs in costumes intended for ordinary wear during the earlier part of the day are simple in character and can be easily made at home by any one who has the time to spare and without very much expense. For, on account of the lateness of the season, dress materials can be purchased just now for considerably less than their original value, says the Washington Star.

Loose fitting blouses and coats are still very popular, and so long as that particular style continues fashionable it will not be difficult for ladies to make up their own dresses, and this means a great saving of money.

His Sad Blunder.

Yes, it was a sad blunder.

He thought the children were in the other room, but it so happened that it was occupied by his wife and a lachrymose neighbor. We all know these sensitive women who weep on the slightest provocation, who begin to sniffle when they talk of their woes, this being really little more than a bid for words of comfort, and this woman was one of them. What had happened is quite immaterial. Something had been said or done that had completely upset her, and in her appeal for solace she sniffled.

As before remarked, he thought the children were in the other room, and one of the children had been suffering from cold in the head. Of course every one knows how annoying a youngster with a cold in the head can be, and he was not in the best of humor anyway.

"For heaven's sake, blow your nose!" he cried at last.

Oh, yes; it was a sad blunder, but even blunders have their compensations. The lachrymose one does not come to that house for sympathy as she formerly did.—Chicago Post.

His Titles.

It was evident in his swagger that he was a scion of the British aristocracy, and the most casual observer could not have failed to note that he was a stranger to the city. He touched a well dressed, auburn haired young man who was loitering in front of a Broadway hotel on the shoulder.

"Pardon me, me dear man, but could I trouble you for a match?" After lighting his cigar he continued: "Bah Jove, this is a remarkable city! This is me first visit to New York, d'you know. I'm a deuced stranger, but on the other side I'm a person of importance. I am Sir Francis Daffy, Knight of the Garter, Knight of the Bath, Knight of the Double Eagle, Knight of the Golden Fleece, Knight of the Iron Cross. D'you mind telling me your name, me dear man?"

Replied he of the auburn hair in a deep, rich brogue:

"Me name is Michael Murphy, night before last, night before that, last night, tonight and every night—Michael Murphy."—New York Sun.

The Way to Force Plants to Branch.

There is only one way in which a plant can be forced to branch, and that is by cutting off the stalk. The plant thus interfered with will make an effort to grow, and either a new shoot will be sent up to take the place of the lost top or several shoots will be sent out along the stalk. If but one starts, cut it back. Keep up this cutting back process until you have prepared as many branches as you think are needed. Persistency and patience will oblige the plant to do as you would like to have it do.—Ladies' Home Journal.

COL. BERRET DEAD.

Former Mayor of Washington, D. C., Died at the Age of 86—Friend of Many Public Men.

Washington, April 15.—Colonel James B. Berret, former mayor of Washington and one of its best known citizens, died here, aged 86 years. He was a native of Baltimore and had been twice a member of the Maryland legislature, and in 1858 and in 1860 was elected mayor of Washington, D. C., as a Democrat. Colonel Berret had the friendship and esteem of many public men, both Democrats and Republicans. He was chairman of the inaugural committee when President Cleveland was inaugurated the second time, and during both the Cleveland administrations was always a welcome caller at the white house. On Aug. 26, 1861, Colonel Berret, by order of Secretary Seward, was arrested as a southern sympathizer, the charge against him being that he had written "certain letters containing treasonable utterances against the United States government." He was sent to Fort Lafayette, in New York harbor, and held there for two weeks as a military prisoner. When President Lincoln heard of the arrest he ordered Colonel Berret's discharge.

The Plucky Rector.

Dr. W. S. Rainsford had started a mission school in the back rooms of a saloon on Avenue A and at one of the first sessions found a big ruffian in possession, greatly to the discomfort of the teacher. Told to go out, the fellow informed Dr. Rainsford with an oath that he would see him further first. The doctor talked peaceably enough to the blackguard, hoping to avoid a disturbance, but when he swore at him again gave him his own medicine in a blow that felled him like an ox. The fellow arose, dazed and groping, to find the doctor standing over him, ready to have it out. "Have you got enough?" he asked. The man cried quits and went his way. The Sunday school session proceeded. A week later there was another fight. The rector started in to clear the room, persuasion having failed, and found the burly ruffian of the previous encounter at his elbow. "I thought I was in for it," he said, telling of it, "and that they had come to clean me out. I made sure my back was free and turned upon them. Imagine my surprise when I saw my customer of the week before grab the other by the neck and rush him to the door. "Here," he said, firing him out, 'the rector and I can clean out this saloon! That was the last fight we had.'"
